[Despatch Abstract.]

Examination---Permanent exemption--M. Virayya--above Rs. 40--Revenue
Department--extended

Read:

Application for Permanent exemption from the Examination Rules of an unpassed Candidate for employment in the Revenue Department: — received from the Collector of Kurnool, No. Nil, dated the 1st February 1921.

2

Name, age and Educational qualifications of the unpassed Candidate for whose exemption sanction is sought	The post in which it is proposed to employ him and nature of the appointment i.e. whether acting or sub-problem or temporary	The sanctioned pay of the post	The examination from which exemption is sought	The period for which the appointment is expected to last	The period for which sanction is now sought (with dates of commencement and of termination)	Is this a first application or one for a renewal of a previous sanction? If for renewal, quote the previous order granting sanction and state for how long the Candidate has been already exempted	What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed Candidate and with what result	Recommendation of the head of the Department	Remarks
1 M. Veeriah, 30 years unpassed	2 General exemption to hold posts Carrying a salary of Rs 40 and above.	3 General exemption to hold posts Carrying a salary of Rs 40 and above	4 S.S. L. C.	5 General exemption to hold posts Carrying a salary of Rs 40 and above.	6 General exemption to hold posts Carrying a salary of Rs 40 and above.	7 Application for general exemption to hold posts Carrying a salary of Rs 40 and above	8 The applicant is an unpassed Candidate and has acted in the Revenue, Account and the Criminal Judicial Dept. He has undergone training in Survey and Revenue. He was exempted by the Collector for permanently to hold posts carrying a salary of not more than Rs 35 per annum (vide G.O. no. 772-4494 Educational dated 17-6-1919). He was confirmed as Second Class Revenue Inspector on Rs 35 as he qualified himself for a Revenue Inspector's place. The Divisional Officer, Nandyal, reports that his work and capacity is superior to that of a passed man. He has good common sense and executive and clerical experience.	9 The facts that he has passed all the special tests and that he was confirmed as Second Class Revenue Inspector makes it clear that he deserves encouragement. I recommend that the exemption be applied for may be sanctioned.	10
