Sir,

I have the honour to state that I appointed T. Jagannaikulu Naidu as Central Nazir of this court in August last subject to temporary exemption from passing the Civil Judicial Test and the High Court - sanctioned the exemption till the publication of the results of the examination held in October last. A few days before the examination i.e., about the 10th October he got typhoid fever and could not appear - for it. He had to continue on leave on that account up to 7--12--20.

As he was prevented from appearing at the examination by circumstances beyond his control, I recommend another term until the results of the next examination are published and request that the Government may be pleased to sanction it under Rule 5-(1) of the Public Service Notification. He has long - been in the process establishment and has much -- experience of the work. Copies of the previous - application for exemption and the High Court's - Proceedings (Dis. No. 1694/17-8-20) sanctioning it are enclosed for reference.

I may state in this connection that I have found him capable of managing his establishment in a satisfactory manner and that in the present state of the - establishment of the district, I would find some difficulty in obtaining a suitable substitute. The man who acted in his - place during his leave has not also passed the Civil Judicial test but obtained sanction of Government for exemption from it. As Jagannaikulu Naidu had put in considerable service and knows his work, I would submit for the favourable consideration of Government the hardship in being passed over by a man without better qualifications. He has put in over 32 years service. He has a sound knowledge of Ooriya.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that I have appointed T. Jagannaikulu Naidu as Central Nazir of the District Court on Rs 90/- subject to temporary exemption under Rule 5-(3) of the Public Service Notification. He is an experienced hand having worked in the process establishment for many years. As Deputy Nazir till now he has been managing the establishment now -- shifted from the Prl: Dist: Munsiff's Court to the District Court and the District Munsiff under whom he has been working recommends him to be fit to be continued as Nazir. He has not passed the Civil Judicial Test required for the post under the rules, but he has applied for the examination to be held in October next. I request therefore that the necessary exemption may be sanctioned until the publication of the results of the next examination. He is a native of Aska and is acquainted with both Ooriya and Telugu. He deserves the concession.

The Registrar of the High Court of Judicature,

Madras.

Dated, Berhampore, 18th December 1920

Sir,

I am directed by Executive Committee of the Association to make the following representation to the High Court, and have the honour to request that the following be laid before His Lordship The Chief Justice and Their Lordships The Puisne Judges.

The Samaj has been bringing to the notice of the Government and the Honourable High Court the paucity of Oriya men in the Judicial Establishment of the District; and in response to repeated representations, G.O.s and Circulars have been issued from time to time, as prominent instances of which I would respectfully draw your attention to G.O.No.2024-Judicial dated 15th December 1890, and a letter of the High Court R.O.C.No.177/19 dated 1st Feb. 1919. The consistent policy governing appointments has been to give preference to Oriyas over non-oriyas and to give them their due place.

The following appointments in the Judicial line of the District which carry a high salary:-

1. Sheristadar of the District Court: Rs.150 without allowance. Dc.
2. Head Clerk of Do. ... 100 Dc.
3. Translator of Do. ... 70 Dc.
- 4.

4.	Sheristadar of the Sub Court:	Rs.100 without allowance
5.	Head Clerk of Do.	...	60 Do.
6.	Do. of Prl.Dist.Mun.Court, Berhampur:	60	Do.
7.	Do. of Dist.Mun.Court, Aska:	60	Do.
8.	Do. of Do. Sompeta:	50	Do.
9.	Do. of Do. Chicacole:	50	Do.
10.	Do. of the Addl.Dt.Mun.Ct:Berhampur:	40	Do.
11.	Central Nazir.	...	90 Do.
12.	Superintendent of Copyists Deptt:	50	Do.
13.	Record-Keeper, District Court.	50	Do.
14.	Deputy Nazir, Sompeta:	50	Do.
15.	Do. Aska.	50	Do.
16.	Do. Chicacole:	50	Do.

Out of these sixteen appointments Nos. 5 and 10 only are now held by Oriyas. Thus the proportion mentioned in the G.O.s referred to above are not complied with.

Now one Mr.Jagannaikulu Naidu who holds appointment - No.11 is not qualified for the post. On the recommendation of the present District Judge Mr.Jagannaikulu Naidu was - exempted for six months; but during the period he was not able to complete the Tests prescribed as qualifications for the post. Now again the District Judge has recommended him for temporary exemption for one year. This recommendation is clearly opposed to the G.O.s referred to above and disregards the claims of one Mr.D.Patnaik who now holds appointment No.5. This man is fully qualified for the post of - Central Nazir he having acted as Central Nazir and held - the appointment of Deputy Nazir for a long time before the creation of the post of Central Nazir. He has passed the old Middle School Examination in the 1st Class and also - the Translation and is permanently exempted from passing - the Civil Judicial Test; considering the paucity of Oriyas in the higher Ministerial staff of the Judicial line, my - Association

Association beg to submit that the appointment of Mr. D. Patnaik is necessary and desirable.

With regard to appointments in the Ministerial Staff the number of Oriyas on the permanent staff is far below the proportion fixed in the G.O.s.

My Association therefore pray:-

1. that Mr. Jagannaikulu Naidu may not be granted the - - temporary exemption applied for:
2. that Mr. D. Patnaik may be appointed Central Nazir:
3. that directions may be given for the appointment of - Oriyas to the higher Ministerial Staff of the Judicial Department of the District as soon as vacancies arise and bringing up the number of Oriyas on the permanent staff to the proportion fixed in the G.O.s.

Sir,

With reference to the High Court's letter R.O.C. No 4498/20 dated the 19th instant, I have the honor to report as follows on the respective claims of the two persons mentioned therein to the post of Central Nazir: T. Jagannaikulu Naidu was confirmed on Rs 40 in 1915 and on Rs 45 in 1918, and was either as Superintendent of Copyists or Dy. Nazir of Beasampore on Rs 50 (temporary) from 1-3-1916 till August 1920; whereas Damodar Pattnaik was a clerk on Rs 30 until he was appointed as Dy. Nazir of Asika on Rs 45 in 1918. Mr. K. Kalyanasami, the then D^r Munsif of Asika, was dissatisfied with him and reported to Mr. B. C. Smith. Shortly afterwards Damodar Pattnaik

Pattnaik was appointed to act as Dy. Nazir of Beasampore on Rs 50 (temporary) and he took leave after remaining in the post for about two months; and the then D^r Munsif of Beasampore Mr. B. Venkataswami Rao preferred to have T. Jagannaikulu Naidu as his Dy. Nazir. When his leave expired on 26.2.1919, Damodar Pattnaik was made to act as Superintendent of Copyists on the same pay. When the Central Nazir was sanctioned and the Sub Court made permanent, I appointed T. Jagannaikulu Naidu as Ag. Central Nazir on Rs 90 and Damodar Pattnaik as Head Clerk of the Sub Court on Rs 60. Of the two, Jagannaikulu Naidu has spent most of his service in the Nazir - Damodar Pattnaik is not better qualified than Jagannaikulu Naidu as both have passed only the Middle School Examination. Being an Oriya, Damodar Pattnaik was exempted from passing the Civil Judicial Test.

Test only last year. He has passed translation paper in Oriya. Jagannaikulu Naidu is far his senior and in work more satisfactory. When he took leave in October last, I promoted Damodar Patnaik to act for him and it enabled me to find out his capacity to manage the large and rather unsatisfactory establishment of the Ganjam Nazarat. I am constrained to say that I found a downward tendency towards slackness and indiscipline.

The recent reference about enabling the Presiding Officer to appoint any fit clerk without reference to seniority to do the Nazir's duties is, subject to some limitations, a very desirable reform. It will look hard if a capable and deserving man be kept out merely to favor a junior indifferent Oriya. I may point out that Jagannaikulu Naidu is a Telaga settled for 3 generations in an Oriya portion of the district like Aska and his knowledge of the Oriya language is exceptionally good. Few of the men who boast of passing in the language had manuscripts like him.

The enclosure received with the letter under reply is herewith returned.

M A D R A S.

Sir,
We the undersigned make the following representation and bring to the kind notice of the High Court and the Government regarding the appointment of Oriya men in the Judicial Department in the Ganjam District.

The Benign Government has passed many G.O.'s regarding the appointment of Oriya men on higher salaries such as Head clerks Central Nazir and Deputy Nazirs.

Whereas the present District Judge of Ganjam recommended one Jagannaikulu Naidu as Central Nazir and the High Court accorded sanction for six months and he was not able to complete the Tests prescribed as qualifications for the post. The period of his exemption is already expired.

We pray that when there are qualified Oriya men available such as Damodara Patnaik, Balaji Subudhi, and Subodhana Tripathi why the post of the Central Nazir to be given to an unqualified person named T. Jagannaikulu Naidu.

We beg to represent that T. Jagannaikulu was a Deputy Nazir in the Sompeta District Munsiff's Court and was transferred to Aska and Berhampore District Court for his bad behaviour and unpopular character.

We further beg to represent that the Benign Government and the High Court refused to exempt T. Jagannaikulu Naidu in the year 1920. We do not see any good grounds why the District Judge is so particular in recommending T. Jagannaikulu as Central Nazir when there are able handed Oriya men such as Damodara Patnaik and Balaji Subudhi. Damodara Patnaik is senior in service and qualified and competent than Balaji Subudhi.
