Vacancy in the Law College, Madras.

Sir,—Consequent on the recent appointment of Mr. Zaimuddin as the third Judge of the Madras Small Cause Court, there has occurred a vacancy in the Law College where he was a professor. It may be that the college council may meet soon to appoint a successor in his stead. In this connection it is necessary to bring home to the college council the claims of Mr. Kunhi Raman, B.A., B.L., one of the permanent and the most senior of all the assistant professors, now in England, on leave, to qualify himself for as a Bar-at-Law. He is very shortly expected back in India. It is not known why his claims were overlooked twice on previous occasions in view of the fact that he is a senior in service both to the presently outgoing professor and his colleague the other professor. Perhaps his being on leave stood in his way. But now that he is very shortly expected back his claims cannot be overlooked this time also. The suggestion made here is that Mr. Kunhi Raman must be appointed or the permanent professor in Mr. Zaimuddin's vacancy and the place may be temporary filled up till Mr. Kunhi Raman comes either by giving a temporary lift to one of the deserving assistant professors now in the college or by bringing in an outsider temporarily. That the college council will not fail to do this bare act of justice is the fervent hope of FAIR-PLAY.

The recommendations of the D.P.D. may be generally approved.

2. As Mir Lym-ud-din Sahib Bahadur was appointed Professor only from the 1st January 1921 and not from the 18th Nov. 1920, the appointment of Mr. P. Chenchiah as permanent Assistant Professor can be made only from the 1st January next. Again as Mir Lym-ud-din Sahib is only acting as Third Judge, Court of Small causes, only acting arrangements can be made in his place as Professor. It is, however, ~~for~~ ^{submitted that} Mr. C. Kunhiraman, who is to act as Professor on return from leave and Mr. S. Ramaswami Ayyar, who is to act as Professor till Mr. Kunhiraman's return, may be allowed to draw the full pay of the post of Professor. The D.P.D.'s intention in recommending substitute arrangements is only this.
