To The Under Secretary of State for India,
Public Department,
India Office.

Sir,

In compliance with your letter No.J.& P.7626/20 of 17th Dec. 1920, I have communicated with Mr.J.Scott, C.I.E., and with the P.& O. the earliest passage which the latter offer me being on the "Caledonia" 26th Jan. 1921. 2. May I request that the orders referred to in the last sentence of your letter may be communicated to me prior to sailing, for while Government can of its nature propose any penalty, I might be as a consequence, whether here or in Madras, no longer interested in remaining in the Service?

I would also respectfully submit that the monetary effect of any such penalty over the remaining period of my service, be calculated and brought into review.

I am etc.
