Letter—from M.R.Ry. K. RAMUNNI MENON Avargal, Acting Registrar, University of Madras.

To—the Secretary to Government, Law (Education) Department.

Dated—the 7th February 1921.

No.—1050.

I have the honour, by direction of the Syndicate, to submit for the sanction of Government under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the following alteration in regulation 5 of Chapter XV adopted by the Senate at its special meeting held on the 21st January 1921 :—

“In line 12, for ‘Rs. 1,250’ substitute ‘Rs. 1,500’”. I am to explain that the proposed alteration in the regulation is intended to increase the maximum personal allowance allowable to the Registrar of the University from Rs. 250 to Rs. 500. In view of the increased cost of living in the country and especially in the City of Madras, the Syndicate recently revised the salaries of the University establishments; but in the case of the Registrar it considered that any increase should be given only by way of increased personal allowance and not by increasing the present scale of the Registrar's salary the maximum of which under the Regulations is Rs. 1,000. The alteration was accordingly recommended by the Syndicate and adopted by the Senate.

Order—No. 303, Law (Education), dated 2nd March 1921.

Under section 25 (1) of the Indian Universities Act, 1904, the Government sanction the alteration in regulation 5 of chapter XV of the University Regulations, relating to the salary and allowances of the Registrar, proposed in the letter read above.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 303, LAW (EDUCATION),
DATED 2ND MARCH 1921

[SUBJECT.—University Regulations—Salary of Registrar.]

From the Registrar, University of Madras, No. 1050, dated 7th February 1921.

In 1906, the salary of the Registrar was fixed at Rs. 600—50—800 during the first five years and, on reappointment, at Rs. 850—50—1,000 per mensem (Regulation No. 146 on page 19 of G.O. No. 841, Educational, dated 27th December 1906). In 1915, the Syndicate proposed that the regulations be so amended as to empower them to grant a Registrar who has reached the maximum of Rs. 1,000 and whose services were regarded as of special value, a personal allowance not exceeding Rs. 250 per mensem. This proposal was noted upon and criticised both by the office and Sir Henry Stone (the then Director of Public Instruction), but the Secretary (now the Hon'ble Mr. Todhunter) considered that it was unnecessary to interfere and that we might let the majority of the Syndicate have their way. He then noted that "the function of Government in respect of University Regulations seems to be to accept or reject, not to criticise in matters of detail." This view was agreed to by His Excellency Lord Pentland and the proposal was accepted (G.O. No. 121, Educational, dated 5th February 1916).

2. The Syndicate's present proposal is intended to increase the maximum personal allowance allowable to the Registrar from Rs. 250 to Rs. 500. From the newspaper report of the Senate Meeting, it would appear that the proposal was hotly discussed at the meeting, that the allowance is to be personal to Mr. Dewsbury, the permanent Registrar, and that the proposal was "carried by a very large majority" of the Senate. The reasons for the increase proposed appear to be:—

(a) That, on account of the increased cost of living, the salaries of the manager and the staff of the University had been raised and it was only fair that Mr. Dewsbury's claim to increase in salary should be considered; and

(b) that Mr. Dewsbury is a man of considerable experience, that he had rendered valuable service to the Senate, and that, in the forthcoming changes, there must be an experienced man at the head to control and guide the new departments.

3. Orders are requested whether in these circumstances the proposal will be accepted by the Government. The remarks of the Director of Public Instruction may be invited.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

The proposal may certainly be accepted.

The matter was discussed first by a sub-committee of the Syndicate. It was then considered by the Syndicate and their recommendation to the Senate was unanimous. There was some opposition, but only of a very small minority. The large majority agreed to the alteration.

The proposal may be accepted.

C.R.—14-2-21.

The following note gives information as to the pay which Mr. Dewsbury will draw if he were granted the revised scale of pay of the Indian Educational Service sanctioned in G.O. No. 600, Educational, dated 17th May 1920.

Mr. Dewsbury joined duty as Registrar of the University on the 27th March 1908. He therefore completed eleven years of service on the 26th March 1919 and was thus in his twelfth year of service on the 1st December 1919, the date from which the revised Indian Educational Service pay takes effect. He will therefore be eligible for a starting pay of Rs. 900 and the overseas pay of Rs. 250 or a salary of Rs. 1,150 per mensem on 1st December 1919. On the 27th March 1920, he entered into his thirteenth year of service and is eligible for the first increment of Rs. 50. Thus, from the 27th March 1920 to the 26th March 1921, he would draw a salary of Rs. 1,200 per mensem; and from the 27th March 1921, he would draw Rs. 1,250 per mensem. He would thus now be drawing Rs. 1,200 per mensem and will earn an increment of Rs. 50 from the 27th March next.

C.V.V.—17-2-21. T.K.—17-2-21.

Mr. Dewsbury's case is similar to that of Mr. Champion—please see page 7 of notes to G.O. No. 600, dated 17th May 1920.

Please see the statement above. Had Mr. Dewsbury joined the Indian Educational Service his emoluments would have been year by year the emoluments shown in column 2. He has drawn those shown in column 3. He has all along done better than the Indian Educational Service officers.

2. On the previous occasion—see G.O. No. 121, dated 5th February 1916—Sir Henry Stone wished to approximate the Registrar's pay and prospects to those of officers in the Indian Educational Service. Please read his long note on pages 3-4 of the notes. The circumstances under which the Syndicate's then resolution was accepted are set out in Mr. Todhunter's note. His anticipation that the then regulation is not likely to be used again for 15 or 20 years has not come out true.

3. May I suggest for the consideration of the Syndicate the proposal to apply the Indian Educational Service scale, Mr. Dewsbury starting on Rs. 1,250 in 1921 like Mr. Champion?

R. RAMACHANDRA RAO—21-2-21.

I am not prepared to dissent from the unanimous resolution of the syndicate and the resolution of a large majority of the Senate. So the alteration proposed may be accepted.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b1) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
