In forwarding herewith a copy of letter No.327 dated the 31st ultimo from the District Munsif, Trivellore, I have the honour to request that the High Court may be pleased to move the Government to exempt A. Veeraraghava Chetty, clerk of the District Munsif's Court of Trivellore from examination rules in order to be promoted to posts carrying a salary of Rs.35/-. The clerk has proved himself to be a capable clerk, and much difficulty is felt in securing passed non-brahmins for lower posts.

2. As the clerk was already temporarily exempted by this Court for one year ending with 31st January, he cannot be further exempted temporarily in continuation; and I am therefore issuing instructions to the District Munsif that unless it be found possible to give him a typist's post on Rs.25/- he must, till receipt of orders of permanent exemption, revert to his permanent appointment.

To

The District Judge,
Chingleput.

SIR.

I have the honour to inform you that the temporary exemption granted to A. Viraraghava Chetty, 8th clerk of this Court on Rs. 20/- to be sub-protem 5th clerk on Rs. 25/- vice Yegneswara Sastri on other duty as clerk in the Additional District Munsiff's Court, Chingleput, under Proceedings of the District Court No. 307 dated 10th February 1920 expires by 31st January 1921. It is not definitely settled now when the said sub protem vacancy will terminate. The said clerk, A. Viraraghava Chetty has put in a total service of 5 years. Though he is an unpassed candidate he has passed Typewriting, Intermediate, and Shorthand Elementary, in the 1st class. In consideration of his intelligence and industrious habits my predecessor, Mr.T.Sundaram Ayyar observed that he deserved promotion and applied to the District Court for exempting him temporarily under the examination rules to enable him to hold an acting appointment on Rs. 25/- and the District Court was pleased to sanction the exemption. Since my transfer to this court in June last, the said clerk is working under me as original suit clerk taking down also judgments in Shorthand to my dictation. I find him intelligent, hard-working and a very useful clerk in the Court. He

I have the honour therefore to request that you will be good enough to address the High Court to recommend to the Government for his permanent exemption from the examination rules and in the meantime to exempt him temporarily for one year from 1-2-1921.

Sir,

Sd/ C.V. Reddi,

District Munsif.
