on p 66 of the "memoranda on Native States in India" regarding the ~~style~~ style of addressing H.H. the Raja of Sailana. Perhaps this is the style adopted by H.E. the Viceroy. But as H.H.
the Raja of Sailana addresses H.E. the Gov. as "My friend" there seems to be no objection in addressing him His Highness likewise. The conclusion seems to be all right. The address entry may read as "His Highness the Raja of Sailana" etc.

With these remarks the Sailana is an eleven gun chief. In the case of Pudukkottai an eleven gun chief the governor addresses him generally "My Friend", although in a letter of December 1919 he was addressed "Your Highness". In sending the invitation to Pudukkottai in connexion with the Duke's Visit the form 'My Friend' was used.

Page 66 of Volume Memorandum on Native States

Seeing that this is the expression approved by the Govt of India for Sailana Chief and that it coincides with the form ordinarily adopted here also. The same style may be adopted in the letter to be sent to that Chief. The ^{form of} conclusion
"I remain, Your Highness' sincere friend" is correct in any case.

Please examine further the petition whether the Peer should really reply to him.

In the first place I should doubt whether the form "Dear friend" or is meant to reply to his letter & a Raja who is a Muzang to the Gov of Madras & has no relation with us.

Secondly I should certainly be inclined to hold him a Raja who thus takes the position of a private person & put in a case is practically a person concerned in matters concerning his internal administration of his Peer. can only be treated as if he was a private person. In this view mi form of his Raja's letter to His Excellency was wrong, hence I do not suggest that it was knowingly wrong.

I do not understand exactly the import of A in C S's note p 3.
 Does he mean that no reply whatever be sent, (as the letter does not relate to a personal matter)?
 This is for orders.

If on the other hand he means that the reply should issue from the Sect & not from H.E., then there are orders that communications of this nature addressed to H.E. should be replied to by H.E.

Perhaps it is enough if P.S.G. acknowledges by direction.
 It is not usual to note on the merits of issues raised in such communications, unless Govt.
 specifically orders.
