4. If the above committee is constituted the Committee as a whole might sit once or oftener, if necessary, in the beginning to record its general opinion on the questions raised in the terms of reference and after that break up into Sub-Committees to draw up detailed syllabuses &c. At this stage it may not be necessary for the heads of Departments to sit on the Sub-Committees and it will be open to each to coopt or depute a representative or representatives in immediate touch with the respective subjects. After the Sub-Committees have drawn up their recommendations, the Committee as a whole will have to sit and scrutinize them and record their opinion.

5. There will be a good deal of correspondence work to be done and I suggest that the Secretary to the Commissioner may be appointed to act as Secretary to the Committee.

I have the honour to be,
