individuals of the Madras Custom House named in the margin from the provisions of Article 1 of the Public Service Notification for employment as preventive officers

officers and tally clerks on a salary of Rs 40 and Rs 35 respectively. These men were in receipt of salaries of Rs 20 and less as preventive officers and tide-waiters prior to the introduction of the revised scale of pay sanctioned in Government Order No. 2172 Revenue, dated 3rd September 1920. The Collector in consideration of their long service and good work, recommends that they may be exempted permanently up to the limit specified so that they may continue to be employed on the new scales. The Board considers that it would be unfair to throw the men out as they have proved themselves fit for their posts and accordingly supports the Collector's recommendation. The exemption on behalf of the two preventive officers may be given effect to from 3rd September 1920 and of the three tally clerks from 1st November 1920, the dates on which the revised scale of pay was introduced.
