Memo 1661 A-1/1.6.20

With a view to ensure a constant and regular supply of work to the Govt. Press, the Govt. consider it desirable always to keep a reserve stock of work of a not very urgent character which can be taken up whenever there is no pressure of other work. The D.P. I is requested to state whether there are any manuals or other publications pertaining to the Educational Dept. the printing or reprinting of which can conveniently be put in hand now and if so to furnish Govt. with a list of such publications.

U.O. Note No. 1373 A-2, dated 12th May 1920.

The departments of the Secretariat were circularised last year with a view to supplying the Government Press with a reserve of work which can be taken up during the slack season of 1919 and apparently some advantage was taken of the opportunity to reprint Manuals and other publications.

2. In order to ensure constant and regular supply of work the Govt. consider it desirable always to keep a reserve stock of work of a not very urgent character which can be taken up whenever there is no pressure of other work. All Depts. of the Secretariat are, therefore, requested to be good enough to examine whether there are any Manuals or other publications the printing or reprinting of which can conveniently be put in hand now.
