OFFICE OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

The term "allowances" used in Regulation 5, Chapter XIII of the University Regulations, was interpreted to include all leave allowances and the provisions of the Civil Service Regulations were not enforced in audit after the receipt of G.O. No. 1246, Home (Education), dated the 26th October 1920. But as the Senate wants to make the Regulation clear, it may be done by the addition of "irrespective of the restrictions contained in the Civil Service Regulations" to the amendment proposed by the Senate. The amended Regulation will run as follows:—

"The clerical and menial establishments of the University and such salaries and allowances including leave allowances as are not expressly determined by Regulation may be fixed by the Syndicate, irrespective of the provisions of the Civil Service Regulations."

W. D. WOOLLAM—26-2-21.

LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

Please see the Accountant-General's unofficial note above and the amendment suggested by him. Submitted that the alteration adopted at the Senate meeting may be approved and the Syndicate at the same time requested to consider the desirability of amending the Regulation as suggested by the Accountant-General. A paragraph has accordingly been added to the draft above which is for approval.

It may probably be better first to ask the Syndicate by memorandum whether they would agree to the addition.

From the Registrar, University of Madras, No. 2655, dated 24th March 1921.

The Syndicate agrees to the addition proposed in Government memorandum. They may now be requested to obtain the approval of the Senate to the amended Regulation which should run as at 'A' on page above. The Senate's approval to the amendment is necessary before it is sanctioned by the Government.

C.V.V.—26-3-21. T.K.—26-3-21.

I doubt very much whether in this simple matter we should wait for Senate's acceptance. The addition of the words is only in furtherance of the Senate's objection. No material alteration is contemplated. It must be inherent in the power which the Government possess "to approve" of the regulations proposed by the Senate, to approve with slight verbal alterations as in the present case. We have taken the additional precaution of consulting the Executive of the Senate, viz., the Syndicate. The revised draft may therefore issue.
