[Despatch Abstract.]

Indian Educational Service---Grant of allowances to Principals of Women's Colleges etc--Government of India's reference--answered.

Government of India,
Department of Education, (Education)

Delhi, the 21st March 1921.

From

H. Sharp, Esq., C.S.I., C.I.E.,
Secretary to the Government of India,

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras
Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

I am directed to refer to this Department letter No. 855, dated the 6th July 1920, on the subject of the reorganisation of the women's educational services in India.

2. Certain members of the service have memorialised the Secretary of State asking for more favourable terms. One of the suggestions put forward is that allowances should be given to principals of women's colleges and similar institutions.
Before considering this suggestion the Government of India would be glad to be furnished at an early date with the views of the local Government as to the desirability of granting such allowances to women principals together with the amount of the allowance, if any. The allowance, if granted, need not necessarily be on the same scale as that for men.

3. I am further to request that the Government of India may also be supplied with a list of posts, if any, to which these allowances should be attached.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. Sharp.

Secretary to the Government of India.

are to proceed on the analogy of similar allowances sanctioned for the Mann Branch where only Principals of first grade colleges & the Deputy Directors alone get an allowance of Rs 150, it seems that no more posts in the Women's branch need be given the benefit of the allowance. The D.P. may first be asked for his views.

U.O. Reply.

I agree that no more allowances are necessary except that if it is finally decided to start in Madras a L.T. College for women and also a ^{Training} College for the domiciled community at Lovedale ~~with Training College~~, it may be necessary as well as equitable to attach allowances to the officers holding the posts of Principals of these two colleges.
