Reference:-

In 1918 the Board permitted T.S. Venkatesa Ayyar, an unpassed clerk on Rs. 25 in the Land Records Tahsildar's Office, Salem, to appear for the Revenue and Account Tests. He passed the Revenue test and also underwent the Survey training prescribed for Revenue Inspectors. Thereupon the Collector appointed him to act as a Revenue Inspector under the impression that exemption from the Special Tests carried with it exemption from Article 1 of the Public Service Notification for appointment to posts for which the the tests were prescribed. The Board informed the Collector that, before promoting unpassed candidates to posts higher than those for which they had been exempted, it was necessary to obtain the sanction of the Board or Government as laid down in Article 4 of the Public Service Notification. On receipt of the Board's orders the Collector reverted Venkatesa Ayyar to his permanent appointment. He now reports that the clerk did good work as acting Revenue Inspector and recommends that he may be exempted up to Rs. 40 to enable him to hold Revenue Inspector's post. The Board requests that Government will be pleased to grant the exemption applied for. An application in the prescribed form is enclosed.
