U.O.Reply.

I have since discussed ^{this} with Mrs. Drysdale.

She is of opinion that it is desirable to have the Sub Assistant Inspector of Girls' Schools on the District Educational Council even when the girls' range is under a man. There are eight cases of this character. The reason for this is that the officer in charge of the girls' range will alone be in a position to give the members of the District Educational Council concerned information as to girls' schools in his charge. This reason seems to me convincing and it is recommended that the temporary arrangement whereby the place would be left vacant in Kistna and in other similar cases may be abandoned and the place intended for a lady may be filled either by the Sub Assistant Inspectress or by the Sub Assistant Inspector in charge of girls' range, as the case may be. Eventually we ^{may} hope to have women in all girls' ranges.
