Subject - Nominations to D. & C. Council

The D. & C. may be requested to offer his remarks on the Collector's nominations.

2. The collector raises the question whether there is any legal objection to the appointment of Mr. H. Kanda-Swami, teacher in a Panchama elementary school, to represent the depressed classes. It does not appear that there can be any objection to this nomination. Associations of teacher-managers are given the privilege of electing members to the D. & C. Council & these will most likely elect one ^(from) among their number as representative. In Madras city managers of elementary schools have secured places in the Council. Under Sec. 17(4) of the Act, these will be precluded from voting when questions relating to grants to their own

It is doubtful whether Mrs. Masilamani who, I understand, is a Christian, will be able to represent the interests of the Hindu community so well as one who is not a Christian. The Collector might ~~perhaps~~ perhaps be asked whether Mrs. T. Subramania Iyer wife of Rao Bahadur T. Subramania Iyer, High Court Vakil, Madras would not be a more suitable nominee.

apparently Mrs. Masilamani has been consulted by the Colr before nomination. We will do well not to doubt her capacity to represent the interests of the Hindu community. I would ask the Director to review the matter & if proper Mrs. Masilamani
