The Erode and the Bhavani schools are entitled to the retention of the temporary teachers, under rule 81, of the Education rules, only if it is assumed that the III standard in the former and the II standard in the latter consisting of 34 pupils each are to be split up into two sections each for the mere reason that the strength is more than 35. It seems doubtful whether the Rule should be so strictly interpreted. It might be possible to dispense with the temporary teachers in these schools. For orders whether the Edu. Dept may be requested to consider the matter or otherwise further.

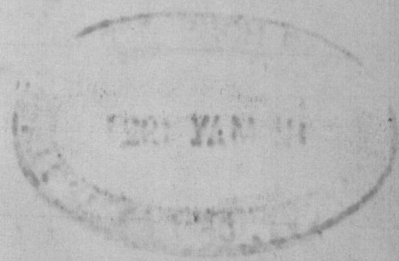

2. The retention of the other teachers may be agreed to.

[C. no. 1327 B] from the D.P.D. no 511 W.B. 3 7.4.21

The D.P.D. has submitted proposals for the retention of temporary teachers in certain Govt. Girls' Schools in the Western circle. The schools at Erode and Bhavani are, under rule 81 of the Educational Rules, entitled to the retention of the temporary teachers on Rs 13 p.m. only, if the III Standard in the former and the II Standard in the latter consisting of 37 pupils in each, are divided into 2 sections, ^{each} for the more reason that the strength is more than 35. The D.P.D. may be requested to state whether the rule should be so strictly interpreted as to divide these standards into two sections each and if not whether the temporary teachers on Rs 13 p.m. in these schools may not be dispensed with.

Rule 81 of the Madras Educational Rules has to be read in conjunction with Rule 12, The last sentence of which is as follows:-
'It is very desirable that there should be a teacher for every 30 pupils.'

In view

In view of the fact that the II standard at Erode is 55 strong and the strength of the I standard in Bhavani is 71 it is probable that there will be on the reopening of the schools after the summer holidays an accession to the strength of the two classes in question.

If the Madras Educational Rules are not going to be adhered to strictly in Government institutions it is not likely that we can enforce them in other institutions under public management or in institutions under private management.
