The Law (Education) Department.

447. (a) Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a list of inspecting officers with their qualifications and salaries who are appointed to look after the education of girls and women of this Presidency? and

(b) Will the Government be pleased to state whether there is a separate quarterly list of inspecting officers and teachers who are engaged in the education of girls? If not, will the Government be pleased to issue such a list in future?

[Meeting of the 14th February 1921.]

may be referred to the Quarterly Civil List. This does not however give the qualifications. A list of the 50% draft gives Portion (b) of the question. There is no separate quarterly list of inspecting officers and teachers who are engaged in the education of girls, but the names, qualifications and salaries of such officers and teachers are given in the 'Quarterly List of officers in the Educational Dept.' which is not however published.

The following draft answer is submitted for consideration:

(a) The member is referred to the 'Quarterly Civil List'

(b) The answer is in the negative.

As regards (a) it won't be a complete answer to refer the member to the Quarterly Civil list alone. Shall be put before the Council an extract from the list prepared in D.P.O.
Office? On 28.2.21.
