The Principal
Law General Office
Madras

Your venerable servant begs most respectfully and Submissively to inform you that I had been submitting my request to the Secretary of State and I received information that I should address you I therefore beg to venerate myself at your merciful feet and earnestly ^{Solicit} that you will take pity on this his pitiful case into your benign consideration and render him some sort of consolation to enable him to pass his miserable days Begging to be pardoned for the trouble and his audacity for intruding on your valuable time

The humble petitioner begs to inform your Lordship that he has been serving the Madras Railway Company for the past 27 years and after which service was transferred to the Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway for the past two years and owing to domestic affairs he was unjustly dealt with and dismissed from the said railway without any gratuity or bonus for his long and faithful service and after leaving the above mentioned railways he had been in many places of trust and gave his immediate officers every satisfaction in the discharge of the duties entrusted to his care and holds credential references to this effect. He had been a volunteer on the said railways for 29 years and procured a long service medal and after which he joined the Madras volunteer guards for the past three years and from thence left for Mesopotamia as a military signaller on the said railway and was repatriated to India he was also mobilised for three months in the Madras volunteer guards during the war and lastly as a decoding clerk under the cable censor and had to his services owing to the assertion of the censorship ever since he is without an employment and everywhere he made an attempt saving his gray hairs they seem to say that he is rather old and must take rest. He is aged 52 and has a son about 12 years and solely dependent on him. He is the son of a European and his father had been serving the Army as a Surgeon and after which joined the said railway as a guard and died while in service. This is a specimen of the petitioner's handwriting he had studied up to the 9th standard and had to discontinue his studies for want of financials and joined the railway at the age of 14.

He therefore throws himself at your Lordship's mercies and earnestly trusts your Lordship will be graciously pleased to exempt him from all examinations and grant him some sort of employment so as to enable him to maintain himself respectably and to educate his son.

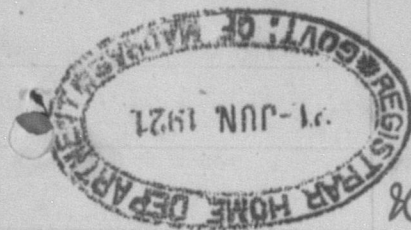

For which act of kindness and charity he and his distressed son will ever pray for your Lordship's long life and prosperity.

The humble petitioner has the honor to remain my Lord

Your most obedient and humble servant
E. A. Walker
