RC No. 3474-9/24
 Station Madras, Dated the 22nd December 1924

From (Name) R. Littlehales, Esq., M.A.
 (Designation) Director of Public Instruction,
 Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
 Law (Education) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit herewith a copy of the Minutes of a meeting of the Law College Council held in the Chambers of the Hon'ble the Chief Justice on Wednesday the 17th of December 1924.

Since the College reopens early in January it is desirable that Government issue orders immediately on the appointment of special lecturers and assistant lecturers.

I advise as regards special lecturers that the recommendation of the College Council contained in para 11 of its minutes be accepted.

Regarding

Regarding assistant lecturers 34 names have been submitted and I am informed that another name is still under consideration of the College Council. The names are not arranged in any order of merit.

In view of the fact that the new scheme is being introduced in the middle of an academic year and of the desirability of retaining some continuity in the working of the College so that the students may not be adversely affected by the change I advise that Government appoint the 4 members of the present staff as assistant lecturers who are recommended by the Council and who are at present engaged in college work.

Regarding the other 8 assistant lecturers to be appointed I advise that they all be selected from the 26 names selected by the Law College Council. I ~~do not~~ advise that Government begin this reorganisation of the college staff by relaxing the six years' rule which it has just laid down.

I advise that as recommended by the College Council the present working hours be continued, viz., from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m.

I support the recommendation of the College Council regarding the appointment of a Vice-Principal. If this matter however is likely to be settled only after considerable discussion I suggest that a decision thereon be held over. The appointment of special lecturers and assistant lecturers is urgent.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Director of Public Instruction,
M a d r a s.

The following members were present:-

1. The Hon'ble Sir Murray Coutts Trotter, President.

7. Mr. C. Kunhi Raman, Ag. Principal, Secretary.

(S) Subject for consideration:- G.O. No. 1702 dated the 5th November 1924 (Law-Education Deptt) regarding the reorganisation of the Law College.

(S) 1. According to the G.O. the staff of the College is to consist of a Principal, 12 Assistant Lecturers on a salary of Rs. 200 each a month, and a few Special Lecturers selected from among senior members of the profession. The Assistant Lecturers are to be juniors of not more than 6 years standing at the Bar, and they and the Special Lecturers are to be appointed for short periods. In view of these facts it was felt that there was need for the appointment of a Vice-Principal as a permanent member of the staff to assist the Principal in his work and to be able to take charge of the College during the absence of the Principal, the Assistant Lecturers being obviously not suitable for this purpose and the Special Lecturers not likely to be available for it.

2. It was therefore unanimously resolved that a recommendation be made to the Government that the appointment of a Vice-Principal be sanctioned and that Mr. C. Kunhi Raman, the Ag. Principal be recommended for that post.

3. The selection of candidates who are suitable for appointment as Assistant Lecturers was next taken up for consideration.

4. It was reported to the Council that five members of the existing staff were qualified for appointment under the new rules.

5. Resolved that the names of the following four members of the present staff be sent up to the Government with a recommendation that they are suitable candidates for appointment as Assistant Lecturers under the new scheme.

1. M.A.Azeem. ✓
2. S.Govindarajulu Naidu. ✓

- ✓ 2. Abdul Gani, B.A., B.L. ✓
3. Syed Immamuddin, B.A., B.L.,

25. P.S.Sundaresa Iyer, B.A., M.L.
26. P.V.Vallabhacharulu, M.A., B.L.

7. In addition to the above two lists it was resolved that the names of the following four gentlemen who have been practising for over six years at the Bar and therefore are disqualified under the new rules, be sent up to the Government with a recommendation that in case the Government thought it fit to relax the six years' rule, they are well qualified for appointment as Assistant Lecturers.

1. G.Rajagoapalan, B.A., M.L.
2. T.S.Viswanathan, B.A., M.L.
3. K.S.Venkataramani, M.A., B.L.

8. The subject of Special Lecturers was then taken up for consideration.

9. Resolved that this Council recommend to the Government that six Special Lecturers be appointed and that each of them be asked to deliver not less than 12 lectures during an academic year.

10. The Hon'ble the Chief Justice announced that he had, in response to a request, expressed his willingness to serve as a Special Lecturer for a year.

11. Resolved that in addition to the name of the Chief Justice, the names of the following six gentlemen be sent up to the Government with a recommendation that they be appointed Special Lecturers.

3. Vere Mockett

5. K.Subramania Pillai
6. P.Chenchiah.

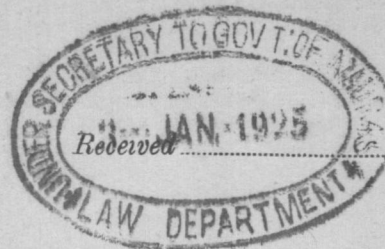

(Provisional) S.Doraswami Iyer.

12. Paragraph 6 of the G.O. which refers to the working hours of the College was then taken up for consideration. The Secretary stated that the students as a body through their Representative Council had expressed their disapproval of a change in the working hours to 12 to 4 p.m. RESOLVED that this Council recommend to the Government that the present working hours, viz., 10 A.M. to 1 P.M. and 2 to 3 P.M. be continued.
