It has been suggested to Govt. that officers of all quasi Commercial departments who have to deal with account matters should be required to pass the Account Test or such other examination as may be considered suitable as it is necessary that such officers should have some acquaintance with the general principles of Govt accounts and audit. The L.S. Johnson is requested to offer his remarks on the above suggestion ^{in respect of} ~~with reference to~~ the Account ^{in the Govt Department who} ~~officers dealing with~~ ^{would fall within the above category.}

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (General) Department.

Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,

With reference to Government Memorandum No. 502 G-1 Law (General), dated the 6th February 1924, I have the honour to state that at present Jailers and Deputy Jailers only are required to pass the Departmental test, viz., the Jail Test, which includes the Account Test. I am of opinion that the passing of the Jail Test should be made compulsory in the case of all clerks within a specified period, say, 2 years after appointment in the Department, their confirmation depending on passing the test.

2. As the present account test, which forms a part of the Jail Test, is not considered sufficiently comprehensive to permit of the officers of the department gaining the experience required of the general principles of Government accounts and audit, it is proposed to add certain additional chapters from the Madras Treasury Manual, Civil Service Regulations (including Fundamental Rules) and Civil Account Code to the syllabus. I am in - - communication with the Examiner for the Jail Test in this connection, and am also in correspondence with the Accountant-General on the question of introducing the Commercial system of accounts in Jails - Vide para 2 of G.O.No.882 C-1, dated the 28th February 1924. On receipt of replies I will submit a combined report to Government.

From (Name) Lieut-Col. J.P. Cameron C.I.E., I.M.S.,

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (General)

Department.

Sir,

In continuation of this office Nos.G.267, dated the 31st March 1924 and 422, dated the 18th May 1924, I have the honour to submit herewith a list of chapters selected from the Civil Account Code, Fundamental rules, and Madras Travelling Allowance rules and to request that the same may be embodied in the new syllabus for the Jail test.

2. Mr.Snow, Examiner for the Jail Test, has approved of the above additions to the syllabus, but he is of opinion that the period for passing the test Viz., 2 years, suggested in my letter No.G.267, dated the 31st March 1924, is not long enough for new clerks entertained in the Department to get themselves acquainted with the rules and the general principles of accounts. He recommends that the time may be extended and * that clerks may be permitted to take up one or more of the five subjects of the test at a time at a corresponding reduction in the total fee.

- * 1. The Indian Penal Code.
- 2. The Code of Criminal Procedure.
- 3. Laws, Rules, Regulations and orders relating to Jails
- 4. The Civil Account Code.
- 5. Fundamental and Travelling allowance rules.

I agree with Mr. Snow and suggest that the period for passing the Jail Test be extended to 3 years with the option of entering for one or more subjects at a time on a reduced examination fee.

3. With reference to para 2 of Government Memorandum No. 882 C-I Law (General), dated the 28th February 1924, I beg to forward a copy of letter No. H.A. Comm. G. 1.12-191, dated the 21st May 1924 from the Accountant-General, Madras for the information of - - Government. The Commercial system of accounts is not maintained in dealing with Jail Manufactory Departments and there is no objection to the introduction of such account keeping in certain selected Central and District Jails. But, in view of the Accountant-General's statement in para 1 of his letter referred to above it would perhaps be advisable to let the matter lie over until his inspecting staff have carried out a thorough inspection of the accounts of all the principal Jails, when it will be possible for him to advise definitely on the - - desirability or otherwise of placing Jail industries and accounts on a commercial basis. If this proposal is accepted, the - - Accountant-General may be asked to submit a report at the close of the audit. In the event of Government deciding to start a test system of Commercial accounts in certain selected Jails, without further delay, it will be necessary for an officer specially trained in such account keeping to be deputed to those Jails to instruct the staff in the maintenance and working of the Commercial system of accounts.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Lieut-Col. I.M.S.,
Inspector-General of Prisons.

Copy of letter No.H.A. Comml.Gl. 12-191, dated the 21st May 1924 from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the Inspector-General of Prisons, Ootacamund.

Subject:- Proposal for the introduction of the commercial system of accounts in Jail Industries.

With reference to your letter No.2933, dated the 25th March 1924 on the above subject, I have the honour to state that the audit of Jail Manufacture accounts was hitherto conducted by the peripatetic staff of the Examiner of Local Fund Accounts and has been taken over by this office only from the current official year. The inspecting staff of my office have not yet inspected the accounts of all ~~jails~~ the principal Jails so as to have an adequate and intimate knowledge of the internal accounts maintained in the manufacturing departments of the Jails and to advise on the desirability or otherwise of placing the Jail industries on a commercial basis.

2. I am, however, sending herewith for your information a note prepared on the subject by M.R.Ry. M. Satchitamantam Pantulu Garu Assistant Accounts Officer, who was engaged recently in the test-audit of accounts of the Madras Penitentiary and his views - - represent the result of his inspection of the accounts of the above mentioned Jail.

"Under/existing system, funds required for expenditure on Jail Manufactures are drawn on abstract bills presented at Treasuries by Jail Superintendents who subsequently prepare and submit to audit countersigned detailed bills through the Inspector-General of Prisons. Monthly statements of receipts and expenditure together with vouchers for amounts exceeding Rs.25/- are also submitted to the Inspector-General for audit from each Jail. The necessary - - subsidiary books and accounts are maintained in the Jails. After the year's accounts are closed, a Profit and Loss Account is - - prepared by each jail from the subsidiary books. These books and the Profit and Loss accounts are audited locally once a year by the audit staff in the same way as a Firm's accounts are audited by a private auditor appointed for the purpose. It will be seen from this and from the description of the books given in the test-

audit Accountant's note that the accounts maintained in Jails are already on commercial principles; but the system is not perfect in that that the cost of establishment the cost of blocks (land and buildings) interest on the capital sunk, stationery and other charges incurred in connection with the operations and sales etc., are not taken into account in pricing the manufactured articles and in arriving at the actual profit ^{or} and loss. No balance sheet is also prepared at present. The accounts as maintained do not also admit of the articles manufactured, such as cloths, being priced at the several stages of manufacture taking into account on the costs at each stage.

So far as the Penitentiary is concerned the books of which have been examined by me, gingelly oil forms the bulk of the manufactured articles, the other manufactures being a few stationery articles such as tags and inks and articles of furniture such as tables and chairs etc., but these are not on an extensive scale. The proposals of the Retrenchment Committee being to extend the scope of operations in Jails to other simple manufactures, such as working of raw cotton into yarn, and to meet the expenditure on manufactures by raising loans, there seems to be no doubt that the maintenance of accounts on a strictly commercial basis will be more advantageous. It may be that the convict labour may not be so skilled as free labour available outside Jails as stated in the Test-audit - - Accountant's note, but as convict labour is not actually paid it may be priced only at its worth for costing purposes so that the labour portion of the cost of Jail products may not compare - - unfavourably with that of similar products of private manufacturing firms.

The Inspector-General's apprehension seems to be that the Jail establishment may not be able to understand and work the commercial system as easily as the present system. Although the commercial system may involve more elaborate accounting costing articles accurately being the chief aim of the system, yet it is not likely to be so abstruse as not to be easily grasped by men of ordinary educational qualifications. Men of the requisite qualifications in commercial accounting can also easily be procured now. After all, it may not be the object of Government to introduce the system in all Jails at once. They may select in the beginning only a few

Jails for trying the commercial system of accounting in them, just as they have done in the Forest Department where only select projects such as Chirai Nair scheme, Russellkonda saw mills etc., are subjected to the new system. In any case the Inspector-General may perhaps be advised to recommend the trial of the system in a few select Jails at present and to extend the system to others as experience is gained and if the results of the experiment warrant such an extension.

What the exact forms or rulings to be used are under the commercial system does seem to be within the scope of the present enquiry of the Inspector-General nor can the forms be described now. The forms are to be framed by expert Accountants or an officer specially trained in commercial accounting when the stage is reached.

I have the honour to solicit a reference to para 2 of my letter No. G. 480 dated the 6th June 1924 - - recommending the suggestion of Mr. Snow, Examiner for the Jail Test to permit candidates appearing for the Jail test to take up one or more of the five subjects at a time at a corresponding reduction in the total fees and to request that Government may be pleased to sanction this concession as it will greatly facilitate the jail clerks getting through the examination successfully in view of the fact that they have very limited time at their disposal to prepare themselves for examination, owing to the long hours of jail work from morning till late in the evening without the usual holidays. Further, it will be difficult for the clerks to pass all the subjects at the same time and it is necessary to give them every facility, since their confirmation in the Department depends upon their passing the Jail Test.

(not done)

A knowledge of accounts will,
it is said, be in any case necessary
for accounts officers of the Jail
Dept. under the existing conditions.
It will be all the more so in case the accounts of the Jail Dept are commercialised. It is not however so clear whether they are so interdependent that the one should be held up for the other.

It is for consideration whether the enlargement of the scope of the present Jail Test may not be considered ~~as~~ ~~separate~~ by itself apart from the question of commercialization of Jail and separate consideration of the Special Test now presented for Jail officers in this matter is the "Jail Test". It is now presented for only Jailors and Deputy Jailors.

The J.G. ~~now~~ proposes that the clerk in the Jail Dept. should also qualify themselves in it before confirmation. As clerks are concerned in Jail accounts the proposal of the J.G. may be accepted in this regard.

The J.G., further in consultation with the Enamined for Jail Test, recommends, that the period during which the clerk should pass the test for confirmation, may be extended to 3 years.

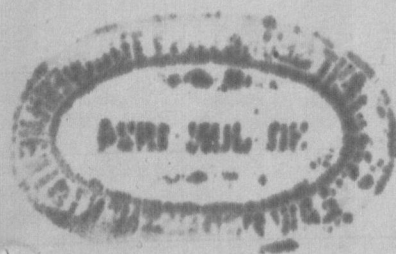

Again that the examination may be taken in one or more subjects together and on a reduced fee. These proposals appear reasonable.

As regards the Jail Test, truly, the proposal ~~now~~ ~~from~~ the J.G.

apparently desires the scope of it to be enlarged by the addition of add. ~~clerk~~ portions in CTC, certain portions of ^{the work of} Fundamental Rules and J.A. Rules.

Before agreeing to the present proposals of the J.G. the Finance Dept. may be consulted as to the sufficiency of the curriculum proposed to give the Jail officers necessary acquaintance with facts, audits.

Commissioner for Civil Examination will have also to be consulted as to the details ^{connected with the} of conducting of the Test.

(2) Commercial system of tests in Jails

Plan in para 3 of J.G. letter in p80. He suggests that the question may be now the J.G.'s ~~own~~ staff has audited the accounts of the principal Jails so that the A.G. may be in a position to advise on the desirability or otherwise of placing the Jail industries on a commercial basis. ~~It~~ ^{He adds that} if it is accepted that the Jail General may be asked to submit a report at the close of the audit. If however a test system of Commercial acts is to be introduced further ^{main} as specially trained in acts should be deputed to those jobs to instruct the staff in the working of commercial system of accounts.

It may be noted here that H.M. has directed on the main

Retrenchment Committee's file that question of introducing the
commercial system of accounts
should be considered by a Committee.

The file is under reference to Des.
Finance. Submitted therefore the 2nd point may be deferred till

Chapter 12 ... Articles 195(a), 197, 198 and 199.

Appendices ... 2, 3 and 6.

The new syllabus proposed by the I.G. of Prisons will be found at page 9 c.f. and consists of

(1) Civil Account Code (selected chapters),

(2) Fundamental Rules (selected chapters) and

(3) Madras Travelling Allowance Rules
(complete).

3. The syllabus for the Account Test in the case of officers of the Agricultural Department has been under separate consideration in consultation with the Accountant-General and the syllabus finally decided will be found summarised on pages 5-6 of notes at flag 'E'. Submitted that in the case of Jail Test also, a similar syllabus may be adopted with the alterations indicated below:

Book and chapter to be prescribed.

Remarks.

- (1) An Introduction to Indian Government Accounts.
Chapters I, II, IV and para 110, 114
& 120 inclusive of Chapter VII.

This has not been mentioned in the I.G.'s
letter on page 9 c.f.,
but this has been proposed by the A.G. in the case of the syllabus for the officers of the Agricultural dept. As this is of general importance submitted that it may be prescribed.

Book and Chapter to be prescribed. Remarks.

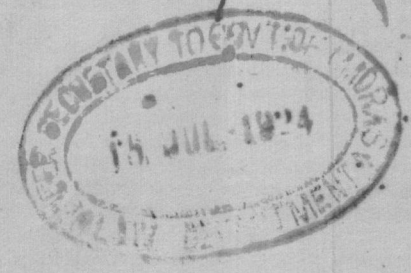

- 2) Civil Account Code, Vol. I, 8th Edn. The Chapters proposed by the I.G. of Prisons are given in item (1) on page 9 c.f. But in connection with the syllabus for the officers of the Agricultural Dept. the A.G. has proposed certain additional Chapters. The Chapters proposed by the I.G. of Prisons and the A.G. have been shown in the previous column and may be prescribed.
- Chapter 1 whole,
do. 2 Articles 34 and 37
Chapters 3, 4, 5 and 6.
Chapter 9-Article 159(a)
do. 10 - do. 164-168, 169(1), 177, 177-A, 178. and 179(a).

do. 15-Article 236-247 with pamphlet re: G.P.F.
Appendices 4 and 8 C.
- 3) Madras Civil Budget Estimates. The I.G. of Prisons has not proposed this item, but this may be prescribed as has been done in a similar case of the officers of the Agricultural Department.
- 4) Madras Budget Manual. The Inspector-General of Prisons has not proposed this in his letter on page 9 c.f., but the necessary portions may be prescribed as has been done in a similar case of the officers of the Agricultural Department.
- 5) Fundamental Rules. The whole of the Fundamental Rules and subsidiary rules framed thereunder are a subject for the Account Test examination - vide item 8 in para 1 of G.O. 67 Law (Edn.), dated 12-1-23. For officers of the Agricultural dept. the Fundamental Rules have not been prescribed. For officers of the Jail Dept. the I.G. of Prisons proposes the addition. Submitted that the addition proposed may be approved.
- 6) Madras Travelling Allowance Rules. For officers of the Agricultural Dept. these rules have not been prescribed, but the I.G. proposes it for officers of the Jail Dept and this may be approved.

4. The case may be sent u.o. to the Accountant-General who may be requested to advise any additions or alterations to the above list.

Office of the Accountant General
Fort Saint George 18th Aug. 24.

I would suggest the following modifications in the syllabus proposed for the Jail Test.

(1) 'An Introduction to Indian Government Accounts' may be omitted as I do not consider it necessary in the case of Jailers, Deputy Jailers and clerks for whom the examination is intended.

(2) Civil Account Code: Chapter 4 may be omitted as it does not concern the work in a Jail office.

Articles 160 and 161 of Chapter 9 may be prescribed in addition to Article 159(a) as the rules are frequently to be observed

Articles 237 to 247 of Chapter 15 and the pamphlet regarding General Provident Fund may be omitted.

Appendix 8 C is unnecessary and Appendix 5 may be prescribed instead.

(3) Public Works Account Code:

As it is desirable that the officers for whom the Test is intended should be acquainted with the rules relating to works accounts I would recommend that Chapters VI, X and XXI of the Public Works Account Code be prescribed.

(4) The Madras Civil Budget Estimates and the Madras Budget Manual may be deleted.

The Deputy Accountant General's suggestions seem sound, and it is recommended that they be accepted. It would be well to include in the syllabus of Jail Test Account code the rules relating to the General Provident Fund, as at present many of the clerks of jails are not familiar with them. I also agree with the suggestion to require jail officers to pass the portions indicated by the Deputy Accountant General in the P.W. Account Code.

Account of the

The revised syllabus proposed for the Jail test may be approved.

2. The I.G. proposes that clerks in the Jail Dept. should pass the test within three years of their appointment and that their confirmation should depend on their passing the test. It may perhaps suffice if it is laid down that clerks will be confirmed only after passing the test. The three years' limit does not seem necessary.

3. The I.G. Ex proposes that candidates for the Jail test should have the option of entering for one or more subjects of the test at a time on a reduced examination fee. In effect, his proposal is to introduce the compartmental system of passing the examination. This concession is not now allowed in respect of any of the special tests. In 1922, Mr. Natesa Mudaliyar proposed to move a resolution on this subject in the Leg. Council. Attention is solicited to the notes on the resolution recorded in G.O. No. 371, dated 8-3-23. It was then considered that in view of the fact that the special tests were all answered with books, the compartmental system was not necessary in their case. The Commissioner for Government Examination (Mr. Littlehales) was also not in favour of the proposal. He thought that the introduction of the compartmental system would lower the efficiency of the candidates entering Government service and that, if necessary, the rule requiring a prescribed minimum of the aggregate marks for all the subjects of a test might be relaxed. Sir Charles Todhunter proposed to oppose the motion. The resolution, however, was not moved in the Council. If the present proposal of the I.G. of Prisons is accepted, the compartmental system may have to be introduced in respect of the other special tests also. It is, therefore, for orders whether the proposal will be
