Note for the Finance Committee.

Extra staff in connection with the scheme for Control of Expenditure.

The responsibility for keeping expenditure within the sanctioned grant and for obtaining in due time additional grants to cover anticipated excesses is, under the Reformed Constitution, specifically imposed on the authority administering the grant, viz., disbursing and controlling officers. This responsibility cannot satisfactorily be discharged by the officers concerned unless they maintain up-to-date and correct accounts with the help of which they may continuously and concurrently scrutinise the various classes of expenditure that they incur. The Accountant-general, Madras, and the Auditor General have brought to the notice of the Government the necessity for formulating a detailed scheme for the purpose. The Public Accounts Committee which examined the Appropriation Report on the accounts of the Madras Presidency for 1921-22, considered that more effective steps should be taken to ensure that heads of departments watch the progress of expenditure continuously throughout the year, and in connection with the Appropriation Report for 1922-23, the Committee again emphasized the importance to be attached to the progressive control of expenditure by heads of departments and disbursing officers.

2. In pursuance of the expressed wishes of the Public Accounts Committee, a detailed scheme for the control of expenditure has been drawn up on the basis of the suggestions made by the Auditor General and the Accountant-General and the scheme has been approved. Copies of the Government Order and the instructions which have been issued to controlling and disbursing officers, are attached. It has been decided to introduce the scheme with effect from the 1st April 1925.

3. It will be observed that the essential part of the scheme is that, so far as the purpose of control of expenditure is concerned, the accounts to be maintained by the departmental officers are to be the main accounts, and that the accounts compiled in the treasuries and in the Accountant-General's office are to be utilized merely for purposes of reconciliation and check.

The various chief controlling officers whose opinions on the scheme were asked for, accepted its feasibility but stated that its successful working might require small additions to their existing staff. In some cases concrete proposals have been put forth by chief controlling officers and in others they have stated that they would wait till some experience had been gained.

4. In the majority of offices the additional work will be so little that there will be no justification for extra staff. In some of the larger offices however, where there are many subordinate controlling and disbursing officers under the chief controlling officer there is no doubt that the maintenance and checking of the accounts will involve appreciable extra work. In order that the scheme may work successfully it is considered necessary that some extra staff should be provided.

5. Mr. Subbuswami Ayyar, the Special Audit Officer for Contingencies, was deputed to examine the offices of chief controlling officers and typical offices of subordinate controlling and disbursing officers in and near Madras with reference to the question of extra staff. He has framed proposals for additional staff, as far as the requirements can at present be judged, and these have been examined in the administrative and Finance departments of the Secretariat. The result of these investigations and the final conclusions of Government have been tabulated in the annexed statement and it will be seen therefrom that an immediate addition to staff involving an extra average cost per annum of about Rs.15,700 will be necessary. Details of the expenditure are as follows :-

Name

64 11 11

Name of the office and extra staff required.	Extra cost per mensem Rs.
1. Office of the Inspector-General of Registration. 1 Sub-Registrar clerk on Rs.65-150	106
2. Office of the Inspector-General of Police - 1 clerk on Rs.65-125.	94
3. Office of the Military Secretary to H.E. the Governor. 1 clerk on Rs. 40-80	60
4. Office of the Assistant Director of Fisheries (Inland) 1 clerk on Rs.40-65	52
5. Office of the Board of Revenue, Land Revenue 2 clerks on Rs.65-125	188
6. Office of the Board of Revenue, Separate Revenue, Stamps. 1 clerk on Rs. 40-80	60
7. Office of the Director of Agriculture - 1 clerk on Rs.65-4-85.	75
✓ 8. Office of the Director of Public Instruction - 1 Superintendent on Rs.125-5-175 and 1 clerk on Rs.65-125.	244 ✓
9. The High Court - 1 clerk on Rs.65-4-125.	94
10. Central Cash Bureau (Finance Secretariat) 1 clerk on Rs.70-175	125 2/3
11. Office of the Surgeon-General - 1 Superintendent on Rs.125-5-175 and 1 clerk on Rs.40-80.	210
	Total Rs. 1,308 2/3.
Extra cost per annum	Rs. 15,704.

It is proposed to sanction this extra staff from 1-4-1925 and the assent of the Finance Committee is requested to the proposal.

5. The question of extra staff for the Jail department has not been considered as the Inspector-General of Prisons has not framed any concrete proposals. Experience may indicate the necessity for some additional staff in the case of the departments which have now made no specific requests and the consideration of which has been postponed, but it is not at present possible to frame proposals therefor.

R. W. Davies,
11-3-1925.

The extra expenditure on account of the scheme in 1925-26 will be Rs 9,845 and it is proposed to move for a further demand for the amount on 30-3-1925.

Extra staff in connection with the scheme for Control of Expenditure. L. Ennos A Reference: Council Note No. 107-XXX dated 24-3-25. 1/4/25

Orders sanctioning the extra staff required were not issued pending the sanction of the Legislative Council to the further demand of Rs 9845 proposed to be moved for the purpose yesterday. The same was not however moved, as on the motion of a non-official Member the consideration of all further demands for 1925-26 was postponed.

The scheme for control of expenditure has however already been ordered to be brought into force from 1st April 1925 and it cannot be worked by the departments without the extra staff required. In order to prevent a breakdown of the scheme even at its inception it is imperative that the extra staff should be sanctioned at once. As the matter is very urgent, orders are requested if instructions may be issued to the Departments of the Secretariat for sanctioning the staff on a temporary footing for one year. The chief controlling officers will be requested to arrange to meet the extra cost by reappropriation within the sanctioned grants. If this is not possible a supplementary demand may be moved later.

I think it is clear from the discussion
V.N.R. 31-3-25.
I cannot find that any very strong case was made out for any of these additional establishments, and do not propose to suggest that any special steps should be taken to anticipate a favourable decision by the Legislative Council. I have instructed the Special Officer to report specially on this question of additional establishment as experience is gained and until he does report consider that no action is at present necessary. But departments of the Secretariat concerned must see.

Submitted that the D.D. has already strongly urged that the new scheme for the control of expenditure cannot be given effect to without additional staff. The Special Officer (Mr. Sullivan) also reported that the minimum additional staff required in the office of the D.D. is one Supt. and an upper division clerk. Unless the Finance Dept. agrees to hold the new scheme itself in abeyance, it will be necessary to sanction the additional staff required by the D.D. There is no object in keeping the establishment temporary. It will not be difficult to meet the extra cost in the current financial year by reappropriation. Finance may be asked to accept the draft as now added to.

I think it is clear from the previous discussions that, so far as the D.P.I's office is concerned, the new scheme cannot be brought into force unless additional staff is provided. It is suggested that if the staff cannot be sanctioned the scheme be held in abeyance.

As the maintenance of departmental accounts is not entirely new in the Education department, submitted that the Law (Education) Department may request the Director of Public Instruction to work the scheme with the existing establishment ~~until a demand for extra staff is placed before the Legislative Council and accepted and report.~~

I agree. There is no sufficient justification for not putting into operation the scheme for the Control of Expenditure, ~~the~~ which introduces no new principle but rather systematises what the D.P.I. was already doing or should have been doing in the past. The Law Dept may ~~have~~ ^{also} be told that it is not proposed to shelve but only postpone the consideration of extra staff due to the action of the Legislature Council. There can be no granting that the D.P.I. will require an extra clerk and an extra Superintendent, ~~to~~ that is no reason why hundreds of disbursing and sub-ordinate Controlling officers under him should not work the scheme as they require no additional staff.

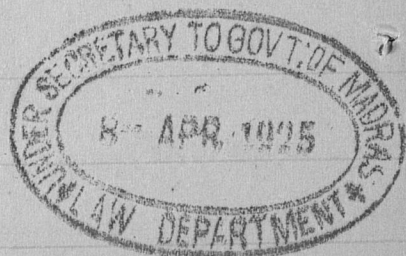

10
The essence of the scheme is, ^{Consistent} ~~that~~ each one of the latter keeping his expenditure under control and without this, it is idle to suppose that the D.P.I. alone with his additional staff will control expenditure.

If the Law Dept still thinks that the scheme cannot be introduced without the extra staff being immediately sanctioned, it is for that Department to move for special action. <sup>But I do not think any Dept is entitled to hold up the
Gov. without the sanction of L.D.</sup>

8/4/25

I agree. The scheme can't be held up because of the action of the Council in postponing consideration for few appointments. The D.P.I.
can judge from actual experience whether it is whether additional establishment is required. So far we have had only a guess on the principle of some ignorance

Subject:- EXTRA STAFF IN CONNECTION WITH THE SCHEME FOR CONTROL OF EXPENDITURE.

NOTE FOR C. 2.

A number of files have been coming through from departments affected by the action of the Legislative - Council in postponing consideration of the demand for extra staff required in offices under them in connection with the G.O. No.110 dated 11-2-25 regarding the Control of Expenditure.

2. In noting on them, the attitude I have taken up is that the G.O. must be carried out and that the officers concerned must do the best they can with their existing establishments. This view I recorded as it did not seem to me that, in any particular instance, a very strong case had been made out for additional establishments and that it did not seem to me there were grounds for asking His Excellency the Governor to take special action. In so doing, I was not aware that the question had already been under discussion between C.2 and C.3. This I only discovered when file II below was returned and put up.

3. I apologise for thus inadvertently exceeding my functions. I now submit the file for the orders of the Hon'ble Member. Other Hon'ble Members and Ministers are also concerned and I should be glad to have C.2's orders as to the further action to be taken.

T.E. Moir.
17-4-25.

C. 2.

The duty of watching their expenditure and controlling that of their subordinates is now a new duty which is now being placed upon controlling and disbursing officers for the first time. It is a duty which it has always been incumbent on them to perform but which has to a very large extent been neglected in the past, and it is therefore necessary to take steps to see that it shall be properly performed. Some of the results of the neglect of this duty in the past are inaccurate budgeting, excesses of expenditure in some cases and underspending in others. These among others add a considerable amount of unnecessary work in all offices and they interfere considerably with the proper performance of its functions by the Finance Department.

2. Under Devolution Rule 37 (e) the Finance Department is responsible for seeing that proper financial rules are framed for the guidance of other departments and that suitable accounts are maintained by all the departments and the establishments subordinate to them. If therefore the Finance Department lays down rules for watching of expenditure it is within its rights in insisting that other departments and the establishments subordinate to them shall be guided by those rules. It is not open to any department to say that it will not introduce the scheme sanctioned in G.O. No. 110, Finance, dated 11th February 1925.

3. The Finance Department was willing to agree to certain of the demands made for increased establishment to work the scheme. I cannot say that I have been in every case convinced of the necessity for extra establishment. The arguments put forward in many cases are easy to meet and there is a tendency on all hands to exaggerate the amount of extra work involved. I am not alone in observing a deterioration in Secretariat work in the last few years. It has become - and is becoming more and more - the practice in the Secretariat to back through thick and thin any demand put up by any department. In former times such demands were carefully scrutinised in the department concerned and comparatively few of them ever got as far as the Finance Department. As things are now, it is left for the Finance Department in every case to do all the resisting.

4. The Legislative Council having refused to consider the demand for the extra establishment, the scheme will have to go forward for the present without any extra establishment. I do not think that this is altogether a misfortune. I am quite sure that some of the demands were exaggerated or even unjustified, and a few months' experience will do more than anything else to show whether extra establishment is needed at all. Where the necessity is proved, it can be made the subject of a supplementary demand at the next meeting of the Legislative Council, but I earnestly ask all departments in the Secretariat to help rather than hinder the Finance Department in its efforts towards economy.

Finance may suggest that the additional staff may be sanctioned on a temporary footing for the present. If so 1 Superintendent on Rs 125 and 1 Upper Division clerk on Rs 65 may be sanctioned up to the 31st March 1926. If actual experience of the working of the scheme shows that the staff is required permanently it may then be made permanent. It may be mentioned that the extra staff required for the Central Cash Bureau in connection with the control of expenditure has been sanctioned only for 6 months.
