"In the particular case the expenditure is to be met by reappropriation and therefore there can be no objection."

To this Sir Charles Toddhunter, in his note on p. 9 of notes in the linked file, raised no objection, ~~but~~ though he suggested that the scheme should be examined by the special officers. It was therefore assumed that he did not object to the cost being met by reappropriation.

The non-recurring and recurring charges of the scheme for the introduction of Carpentry in the Raja's school, Mandasa, amount to Rs 2,930 (including the cost of a building amounting to Rs. 1,850) and Rs. 734 respectively. The Correspondent of the school states that the management ~~will~~ would contribute only half of the recurring charges and that Govt should meet the whole of the non-recurring ~~expend~~ and half of the recurring expenditure. The D.P.D. however, does not support a grant in excess of half of both the non-recurring and recurring charges. The Director may be asked to inform the management that the scheme will be considered by Govt only if it is willing to bear ^{over} half of
