To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (Education) Department.

Sir,

Mr.J.Franco is being in another communication proposed to be appointed as officiating Professor of Economics, Presidency College, Madras in the Madras Educational Service during the absence on deputation of Dr.John Matthai under the Government of India--Commerce Department. I have the honour to state that Mr.J.Franco is now in receipt of Rs.400/- per mensem (Rs.300 Madras Educational Service pay and Rs.100 special pay attached to his present officiating post), but the Presidency College post in his case carries less pay, i.e.,Rs.300/- per mensem as special pay is not attached to it and officiating promotion

cf. para 15 in page 8
of the report.

promotion to the Indian Educational Service is inadmissible in view of the recommendations of the Lee Commission. His transfer from his present appointment is necessary in the interests of public service as he is the only officer qualified to do the work, and it is inequitable that he should receive less pay than what he is now getting. I have therefore the honour to recommend that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the grant of a pay of Rs.400/- per mensem in the Madras Educational Service as a special case to Mr.J.Franco from the date on which he assumes charge of the post of Professor of Economics in the Presidency College, Madras.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Pay of Mr. J. Franco.

CF From the D.P.J., No. 963 C/25 of 15.6.25

Mr. J. Franco is at present in receipt of a pay of Rs. 300 in the Madras Ed. Service and draws in addition the special pay of Rs. 100 attached to the post of Personal assistant to the D.P.J. Consequent on Mr. Mathai's deputation to the Tariff Board, it is proposed to create a post in the M.E.S. in the place of the existing post of Professor of Economics, Presidency College, in the J.E.S. and to post Mr. Franco thereto. Mr. Franco can, however, draw a pay of Rs. ^{only} 300 in that post and he therefore loses the special pay of Rs. 100 which he now draws. As his transfer to the new post is in the interest of the public service, the D.P.J. recommends that Mr. Franco may be allowed to draw Rs. 400 as a special case while holding the post, to say save him from loss. The proposal seems ~~reasonable~~ reasonable and may be accepted. It would, however, seem preferable to allow him a personal pay of Rs. 100 in addition to his pay in the regular cadre, in lieu of the Director's proposal to fix his pay at Rs. 400.

CF

2. A draft order is submitted. If approved, it may be sent to Finance ^{no.} for acceptance.

22.6.25

The Law (Edn) Dept. propose to grant a ~~per~~ personal pay of Rs. 100 to Mr. Franco so long as he holds the post of professor of economics in the Presy. College, (Pay Rs. 300) as his transfer from his present appointment (personal asst. to the D.P. J. - pay Rs. 300 + P.M. pay Rs. 100), which is in the interests of public service, involves a loss of emoluments amounting to Rs. 100.

2 The post of professor of economics in the Presy. College is an J.E.S. post and but for K on page 1 ante the ~~probation~~ fact that ^{officially promotion} ~~probation~~ to the J.E.S. is ^{inadmissible} ~~probation~~, Mr. Franco would draw Rs. 400 on his appointment to the post.

In view of this fact and of the facts stated in para 1 supra, it is for orders whether this Dept. may agree to the grant of the personal pay proposed and whether, with reference to F.R. 37, the personal pay may be reduced by any amount by which the officer's pay may be increased. ^{understood} 3 It is ~~observed~~ that orders have not yet been issued holding the J.E.S. post in abeyance and creating an M.E.S. temporarily in its place. It seems necessary that such orders should issue before appointing Mr. Franco to the proposed M.E.S. post.

4 Funds

Provision has been made in the budget estimate for 1925-26 under "non-votes" on account of the ^{of economics} J.E.S. post of professorship in the Presy. College. If an M.E.S. post is now to be created in its place, necessary provision will have to be made under "votes". The Law (Edn) Dept. may be requested to see that the charges are met by reappropriation.
