Sir,

Mr. K. Sukumaran, Supr. and Asst.
Instructor- reversion to P.W.D
Your letter No. R.C. 661/24, dated 22nd October 1924.

I have the honour to state that Mr. K. Sukumaran has been employed in the College almost since his entertainment in this department. Some of his juniors are now in charge of sub divisions, while Mr. Sukumaran has yet to get himself acquainted with P.W.D. work and establish his fitness for sub division charge. Govt. therefore consider it very hard that ~~he should lose~~ his acting promotion to Assistant Engineer rank, merely because it is inconvenient to spare his services from the College and that he should ~~therefore~~ be -- reverted to P.W.D. without delay.

I have therefore the honour to request you will be so good as to suggest what arrangements could be made for his relief. I have myself no suitable substitute to send in his place.

I request the favour of an early reply.

Sir,

Ref:- 2843-E/24-1 dated October 18th 1924.

In reply to the above I enclose a copy of Mr. Sukumaran's remarks on the subject. The permanent appointment of a Professor of Electrical Engineering is still pending with Government. If Mr. Subba Rao's appointment as Ag. Professor of Electrical Engineering is confirmed I should recommend that Mr. Sukumaran is given the appointment of Electrical Laboratory Assistant. There is no doubt his prospects have suffered owing to his remaining in the College and he has been passed over by juniors. If his request that he can be given the status of an acting Sub Divisional Officer can be complied with, I should certainly recommend it. He is doing very good work here and until my Power House staff is is definitely fixed and a suitable Superintendent appointed it will be very inconvenient for him to be reverted as it is difficult to replace him with a substitute having the requisite electrical knowledge.

To

The Principal,

Ref:- Reversion to P.W.D.

Sir,

I beg to offer my remarks as follows:-

Consequence on the retirement of Mr.H.B.Mathews the place of the permanent Professor of Electrical Engineering is now vacant. If there is any chance of the present acting Professor Mr.P.Subba Rao being confirmed as Professor and the place of the Instructor in Electrical Engineering being given to me in the near future I prefer not to be reverted to the P.W.D. As time is an important factor, in so much, as for no fault of mine I already appear to have lost chances in the Public Works Department by being kept in the Educational Department without gaining any corresponding advantage, I request that this may be quickly considered.

Alternatively I shall prefer to remain in the college if I am given the status of an acting Sub Divisional Officer in the P.W.department and my services as now lent to the Educational department until such time as I can be permanently employed in the Electrical side in the college. I beg to point out and emphasise here that both in point of executive ability and responsibility that the work I have been and am doing is in no way inferior to that of a sub-divisional officer in the P.W.D. I may point out also that though titled as Assistant Instructor the work that I have to do and am doing is not merely one of instruction to students but one involving design and execution and maintenance

I beg to submit that in case either of the above suggestions cannot be acted upon I may be reverted to the Public Works Department without delay.

Yours obediently,

Sd/- Kanoth Sukumaran.

Extract from the speech delivered by J. A. Thorne Esquire
I. C. S. Collector of Malabar at the Durbar held on the 25th October 1923 at the Municipal High School Cannanore when he granted sanad and badge of new year's honors to Messrs
E. V. Amu Sahib and
K. Chantan.

If anyone were asked what Indian communities are most prominent in the past and present history of this ancient town, the answer would undoubtedly be Mappilas and Tiyyans. From the day when the Nayar ancestor of the Arakkal family became a Muhammadan—and this, we are told, was in the shadowy time of Cheraman Perumal—the Mappilas clustered round the Arakkal palace in the Old Town have increased and prospered, and on several occasions have swayed the fortunes of Malabar. As we know them now they are a thriving community of landlords and traders, acknowledging as their head the Bibi who is a loyal supporter of the British Raj, and including in their number many gentlemen of enlightenment and public spirit.

The other community – the Tiyyans – like the Mappilas, are described by tradition as coming from abroad. Though the Mappilas derive their origin from Arabia, and though the Tiyyans may, if the old stories are true, have come to Malabar from Ceylon, both have taken deep root in the soil as typical Malayali communities, and as in particular the backbone of the Indian population of Cannanore. The Malabar Gazetteer says—“By the end of the eighteenth century many Tiyyans on the coast seem to have attained a considerable position as merchants, landowners, etc, and they further improved their position by the services which they rendered to the Company. These good traditions have been maintained; and the Tiyyans as a whole are a most progressive community, especially in North Malabar where they form one of the most progressive classes in India.”

It is fitting therefore that the gentlemen whom we have assembled to honour today should be, one a Mappila and the other a Tiyyan, and both of genuine Cannanore stock.

* * * * *

Like Mr. Amoo Mr. Chantan is a Cannanore man who, after long service elsewhere, has come back to render what service he can to his native town. Mr. Chantan started his official career at the bottom of the ladder. He was a clerk in the Malabar Collector's office, and served in various subordinate capacities. In 1896 he was the magisterial clerk in the office of the Malapuram Special Assistant Collector. In that year there occurred a Mappila rising which in magnitude had no parallel till the late rebellion. Nearly a hundred desperate fanatics rose against the Govt. They were pursued by troops and police across country and took refuge in the Karanamulpad's temple just outside Manjeri. There they were surrounded and shot down. Mr. Chantan accompanied the troops in that pursuit and gave great help to the Special Asst. Collr. in the laborious enquiries which followed the suppression of the outbreak. Shortly after Mr. Chantan was promoted to the post of Sub-Magistrate. Later he became a Tahsildar, and there must be people in Cannanore today who remember the good service he rendered in the capacity of Tahsildar of Chirakkal. At that time somewhat delicate negotiations were going on between the Govt. and the lady who was then the Arakkal Bibi, in connection with the purchase by Govt. of the rights of the Arakkal family in the Laccadive Islands. Mr. Chantan was commissioned to assist in these negotiations and a successful arrangement was made. At about the same time there was danger of a serious breach of the peace as a result of a dispute between the Raja of Chirakkal and the Mappilas of Baliapatam, about land attached to a temple. Mr. Chantan showed considerable courage in dealing with the situation, and received the commendation of the District Magistrate. Mr. Chantan then became a Deputy Collr. and served at Malapuram and Calicut and in other divisions outside the District.

In his treatment of epidemics of plague in his divisions in Malabar, S. Kanara and Salem he showed those qualities of energy and determination which have been conspicuous in his Municipal administration.

He retired from Govt. service in 1917 and came to live in Cannanore. His juvenile and vigorous spirit was not content with inactivity, and in 1918 we were glad to use his service as President of the Bench Court. In May 1919 he gave up that office on being elected Chairman of the Municipality, in which position he has continued ever since. I knew the Cannanore Municipality before Mr. Chantan's day. At that time the administration was struggling against a long tradition of incompetence and inertia. Things had settled into a groove, and in spite of the efforts of the gentlemen who were then in control I do not think that the groove would have been abandoned but for the vigorous propulsion of Mr. Chantan. It is possible to serve the public in many ways, and often great services are rendered by those who practise gentle means. But that has never been Mr. Chantan's way. For Mr. Chantan to see a problem is to desire to tackle it immediately, to meet opposition is the signal for greater determination.

No position in public life, perhaps, is more invidious than that of non-official Chairman to a Municipality. It is his duty to induce his fellow-citizens to perform obligations which are often unpleasant. We all pay taxes with unwillingness and we all are inclined to resent intrusion, even where it is necessary, in the interests of the public good on what we are pleased to consider our private and domestic domain. In fact, we all at times need the spur in the discharge of our civic duties. We are tempted to kick against the pricks and to forget that the application of the spur is the work, not of a wanton jack-in-office, but of a gentleman who serves the Govt. and the public with no reward but the approval of his own conscience and the approbation of those who have the interests of the country at heart. If Mr. Chantan's spur has at times seemed sharp, we must ask ourselves if emergencies have not been such as to call for it. In spite of human nature's ineradicable tendency to prefer being left to itself and to criticise civic zeal I believe that Mr. Chantan's labours for Cannanore are admitted to have resulted in an improvement in the administration, and that his work is appreciated by the vast majority of his fellow-citizens.

Thus of the three arbiters of a Municipal Chairman's work, his own conscience, the verdict of his townsmen, and the judgment of the Govt., Mr. Chantan can, I believe, command the approval of the first two; and that he has the confidence, support and approbation of Govt. is amply warranted both by the praise he has received in the reviews of his administration reports and in the conferment of the title, the sanad and badge of which I have to present today.

No Municipal Chairman can stand alone, and in wishing Mr. Chantan even greater success in the future I would ask his fellow citizens to give a token of their appreciation by loyally supporting his endeavours to keep for Cannanore its reputation of one of the soundest Municipalities in the Presidency.

Ladies and gentlemen, I had the privilege a few days ago to hear from the lips of a member of the Governor's Council an exhortation to the people of Malabar. He reminded them of matters which I have had occasion to mention today—the senseless, and reckless agitation which preceded, and undoubtedly in a large measure caused, the rebellion: the rebellion itself, with its tangle of passions, wrongs, and bitterness; the present phase when we are striving to build up again that edifice of mutual trust and amity without which there cannot be peace or happiness in the District. Here in Cannanore you were spared the flame of the rebellion; but even here the same inflammatory influences were at work. We wish to forget the horrors of the rebellion; but I trust that we shall not forget the lesson which it has taught us—to beware of malice and distrust, to use our political freedom not to promote the forces of anarchy but to co-operate in the new opportunities and obligations which lie before us. In the last few days H. E. the Viceroy has reminded us of our duty in words which I hope we have all studied; and in the gentlemen whom we are to honour today we have object-lessons of devoted and honourable service to the ideal which the Viceroy has set before us—the happiness, peace and prosperity of this country and of all communities therein.

Mr. Amu thanked the Collector and requested him to convey his thanks to Government.

Mr. Chantan thanked the Collector in the words to the following effect “Sir, I thank you most sincerely for having taken the trouble in spite of your multifarious duties to come all the way to confer on me the distinction conferred on me by our benign Government at the very School where I was educated. This School has produced eminent men like Sir, C. Shankaran Nair and Diwan Bahadur Mr. Justice Krishnaa who had their early educations in this hall. Having been a Government servant for a long time I knew the secret of conferring titles; but I will not be justified in revealing the secret. His majesty the King Emperor and His Excellency the Viceroy who confer titles do not personally know the recipients of honors in almost all cases. Disloyal men do not desire to get titles. As a loyal citizen I am grateful to Government for conferring the distinction on me. Conferment of a title is an inducement to the recipient to do better work and it is also an incentive to others to do good work.”

K. CHANTAN.

Except for a short period his service has been entirely in the College of Engineering as Assistant Instructor. In view of his short experience in the department, he has not been placed in the list of supervisors selected for trial in sub division charge.

Mr. G. Jagannatha Rao Nayudu
V. K. Govinda Menon

2 Some of Mr. Sukumaran's juniors are now in charge of sub divisions. Mr. Sukumaran represented in April last that his further stay in the College will prejudice his future prospects and requested, (1) that he may be reverted to the P.W.D. and (2) that in view of his special qualifications in Electrical Engineering he may be offered a suitable place in that branch in connection with the investigation of Hydro Electrical schemes.

3 He was informed in Memo. No. 1133 E.C.R., dated 23rd June 1924 that his request for reversion to the department will be considered in a few months and that his request for appointment in connection with the Hydro Electric schemes will be considered if and when additional staff for the investigation of Hydro Electric schemes is to be entertained.

4 The question of reverting Mr. Sukumaran to the executive was considered recently and the principal Principal of the Engineering College was asked to state if the reversion could be effected about the beginning of this month. The Principal has stated that his reversion cannot be effected at present without serious inconvenience. The matter has therefore been dropped for the present.

5 As regards his second request, there has been no necessity yet for the services of an officer with Mr. Sukumaran's qualifications in connection with the investigation of the Hydro Electric schemes.

6 It will be seen from the above, that the question regarding Mr. Sukumaran's promotion can be considered only after his reversion to the P.W.D. from the Engineering College.

It seems to me very hard that this officer should lose a chance of acting promotion because it is inconvenient to spare him from the College. I hope further inquiries may be made.

U.S.

Please see H.E.'s remarks above. The Principal, Engineering College may perhaps be told that Mr. Sukumaran's reversion should no more be delayed and that he may himself be asked to suggest what what arrangements could be made for his relief in the Engineering College as there is no suitable subordinate in this department who could be posted in his place. A draft letter accordingly is submitted for approval.

Letter to the Principal College of Engrg. Guindy No. 3188 E-24-1. dated 20-12-24 C.No. 534 E. From the Principal, College of Engrg R.C. No. 661/24. dated 25th Febry. 1925.

U.S.

With reference to letter No. 3188 E. 24-1. dated 24th December 1924, the Principal, College of Engineering forwards a letter from Mr. Sukumaran in which he says he will prefer not to be reverted to the P.W.D. if

A post belonging to the Education Dept

- (1) he is confirmed in the near future as Instructor in Electrical Engineering in the College (Pay Rs. 250-40/2-450). or
- (2) he is given the status of a sub division officer in the P.W.D and lent to the Education Dept until such time as he can be permanently employed in the Electrical side of the College.

If either of the above requests cannot be complied with, Mr. Sukumaran requests to be reverted to the P.W.D. without delay.

As regards request (1) the Principal of the College says that he would like to recommend Mr. Sukumaran's appointment as ~~Instructor in~~ ^{Laboratory Assistant} Electrical Engineering should Mr. Subba Rao, the present incumbent of the post of ~~Instructor~~, in Electrical Engineering be confirmed as Professor of Electrical Engineering in which post he is now officiating.

3 Request No.2 is not admissible as the ~~XXXX~~ P.W.D cadre provides only for one appointment of the rank of sub division officer being employed in the ~~P.W.D.~~ ^{College} and Mr. M. Sanjiva Rao, Asst. Engineer is already working in the College against this appointment.

4 It is stated that the question of appointing a permanent officer as Professor of Electrical Engrg. is under consideration with Govt. It seems therefore that the Education Dept. may in the first instance be asked to state what chances there are of Mr. Sukumaran being appointed ^{Laboratory Assistant} as ~~Instructor in~~ Electrical Engrg. in that arrangement. The case may therefore be sent to that department u.o. for remarks.

No provision for the increased salary has been provided in the Budget of the College this year. An additional sum of Rs.1440/- (Rs.250 minus 130 or Rs.120 per mensem) will be required. The extra expenditure will have to be met by reappropriation but I am unable at present to point out savings.

Finance(E.T)

Under the arrangement approved in G.O. No. 275, Law (Edn.), dated 10-3-22, Messrs Subba Rao and Sukumaran are carrying on the duties of Professor of Electrical Engineering and Instructor of Electrical Engineering in the Engineering College, Guindy, for which there are two sanctioned posts, one in the I.E.S. and the other on a special rate of pay of Rs250-40/2-450.

Mr. Sukumaran only assists Mr. Subba Rao and he is not carrying on the full duties of the post of Instructor on Rs250-450. He therefore continues to draw his pay as Supervisor in the scale of Rs80-10-150-12½-250 (present pay Rs140). The present proposal is to allow

Mr. Sukumaran the pay of an Asst. Engineer(Rs250-20-550-E.B-20-750)

while doing this work on the ground that some of his juniors in the regular line are acting as Sub Divisional Officers (Asst. Engineers). The proposal is open to the following objections:-

(I)

Law Edn 1086A-3

28-5-25

20351 ET

I don't think there is much in this objection. When the opportunity is filled up Mr. Sukumaran will either be promoted to 250/450 or sent to the regular line. In any case he will not be 450 for 10 years.

- (i) If it is eventually decided to appoint Mr. Sukumaran as Instructor of Electrical Engineering on Rs250-40/2-450 he will may put in a claim for a scale of Rs250-20-550-E.B-20-750 which he would have drawn in the regular line. The pay of the Instructor's post in the College may then have to be revised.

- (ii) Other Supervisors who are employed as Asst. Instructors in the College might also put in similar claims and it would be hard to resist them.

In the circumstances, the proper course seems to be to revert Mr. Sukumaran to the regular line although it would cause some inconvenience temporarily. The Law and the P.W. Departments may be requested to consider the question further.

The principle seems to be that there is no post for Mr. Sukumaran in the College on pay as high as he would be drawing in the regular if he returned to the regular line. The proper course - as is advised - would be for him to be returned to the regular line, and for a junior man to be brought into the College. The drawback to this being the inconvenience caused to the College. It would be an inconvenient precedent to allow create temporary posts for Subordinate Officers for indefinite periods in this way - Some officers not wishing to leave the College a line pay might claim the same privilege. It is suggested that Law Edn might amend the draft to sanction the temporary employment for a definite period - say to the end of the next term. That should give the principal time to make arrangements to return Mr. Sukumaran to the regular line.
