District Educational Council, Ganjam Dt.

BERHAMPORE

Sir,

Ref:- Secretary- District Educational Council-
Berhampore.

Please state the duties of the Secretary to the Council, as the Elementary Education Act. does not clearly lay down any specific rules on this point.

I hear that ~~the~~ in pursuance of a communication from the Government, the District Educational Council, --- Cocanada has gone a step further in entrusting the --- Secretary with some responsible work of the Council, and --- the Secretary is not a nonentity there as he is kept in this District. I suggest that, on the other hand, the help of the Secretary, who is a departmental man and who is in touch with the procedure, will be of more use not only in minimising -- the correspondence of the office but in several important -- matters.

It is needless for me to state that in all meetings, Councils, Societies Etc. it is the Secretary that serves as a guide in transacting the business.

Will you be pleased to address the President, D.E.C. Cocanada, regarding the duties now discharged by the Secretary ~~xxxx~~ of his council, and if possible, to address the govern-ment on this subject?

I beg to remain,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
S. M. Patro
Secretary, District Educational Council

Submitted to the Secretary to the Government Law(Education) - Dept. Madras.

The duties of the Secretary to the Council are not defined anywhere in the Elementary Education Act or in the Rules. - But as per G.O.s Nos. 516 dated 2-4-21 and 1330 dated 16-9-21 - the Secretary is dealing with - the Permanent Advance only ---- and nothing else.

So the Secretary to Government may be pleased to let us - know definitely the duties of - the Secretary.
