Copy of letter No. 341, dated the 19th March 1925 from the Superintendent, Sub Jail, Mangalore.

Adverting to this office letter No. 1377, dated the 8th September 1924 and your order No. 10206, dated the 3rd October 1924 thereon, I have the honour to report that soon after the permission was granted in G.O.No. Mis 1524, Law (educational) dated the 30th September 1924, Jailer T.M.A Wahab sat for the Jail Test Examination in December last and passed it in the first year without any difficulty and preparation - This fact itself will convince the Inspector-General about the Jailer's capability and superior qualifications. I fully endorse the recommendations made on his behalf by my predecessor in this office letter No. 1377, dated the 8th September 1924 and strongly urge his exemption from the general qualifications to enable him to pass other special tests and qualify himself for superior appointments. When the Jailer wanted to appear for the Account Test Examination he was informed by the Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations, Madras that he could not apply for any other test than that mentioned in the G.O. It is therefore necessary in the interest of the Department that he should be exempted and he richly merits this exemption - Vide your remarks in the Administration report for this Sub jail for the year 1924.

With reference to Government Memo No. 921 B-3, dated the 10th June 1925 I have the honour to state that it will do if T.M.A. Wahab is exempted in the meantime for employment in the Deputy Jailer Grade. This means that promotion will be to the Probationary Deputy Jailer grade in the first instance, but as Probationary Deputy Jailers have to act in leave and deputation vacancies, etc., for Deputy Jailers, it is advisable, for administrative reasons, for exemption to ~~be~~ be given at the outset to enable Probationary Deputy Jailers to act as Deputy Jailers, without further exemption being applied for to Government.

Memo to the I.G. of Prisons NO 921 B-3 of 26.5.25

At 1720 From the I.G. of Prisons NO G 437 of 3.7.25

The I.G. of Prisons agrees to J.M.A. Wahab being exempted for appointment to the Dy Jailor's grade for the present. He however points out that even if the exemption is granted for Dy Jailor's appointment Wahab will be appointed only as a probationer in the first instance. He also points out that if the exemption is confined to Probationary Dy Jailor's appointment it would be advisable for administrative reasons to grant exemption even now for Wahab's appointment as acting Dy Jailor in leave and deputation vacancies etc. as such contingencies are likely to arise. This for orders therefor.

For the present, this will meet the case V.T.K. 11.7

① whether Wahab will be exempted for appointment as Dy Jailor or ② whether the exemption will be limited to Prob. Dy Jailor's appointment (Rs 60 & 70) with permission to the I.G. to appoint him in acting appointments of Dy Jailor.
