The papers in G.O.No.1585-86 Law (Education), dated 8-11-1921 show how the practice arose of the High Commissioner occasionally assisting Indian students in England who find themselves handicapped for want of funds. Of the two cases reported in the Accountant General's letter the grant of £ 50 to Mr. V. R. Adige was concurred in by this Government--please see letter No.359 C-25-3, dated 5-3-1925, a copy of which was also communicated to the Accountant General. In regard to Mr. B. Dasannacharya, the High Commissioner reported in his letter I.S.No.1877/1 dated 27th November ¹⁹²⁴ that he had sanctioned a grant-in-aid of £ 140 a year to Mr. Acharya with effect from 1st December 1924. This Government have not yet ratified the High Commissioner's action. As it was understood that Mr. Dasanna Acharya had a brother employed in the Bombay P.W. D., the Bombay Government have been asked to report what the latter's position in the service is and how far he can help Mr. Dasanna Acharya. This Government have not therefore accepted the charge. It appears from the current letter that the High Commissioner has already disbursed £ 46-13-4 or ~~only~~ ¹⁴⁰ a third of the £ ~~450~~ promised by him. It is not unlikely that he has disbursed another instalment also. For orders ~~whether~~ whether in view of the correspondence in the linked file the High Commissioner should ~~be~~ immediately be asked not to make further payments as the question is under ^{the} consideration of the Local Government.
