of the District in which the near relatives of the pupil reside or in the case of the City of Madras, the District Educational Officer, Madras, is intimated of the discharge of the pupil at least two months before the actual discharge takes place. Attention is also invited to the further provisions in the remaining clause of the rule. The information may be returned to the Public.

27/6/25
This refers to the discharge under the Children Act. What Public want to know is whether any intimation is sent to the D.M.s concerned in cases where boys are discharged under Sec 13(2) of the Reformatory Schools Act.

With reference to us' query above, it is said, that according to G.O. 800 L (Son) & 9.6.23 the rules framed under the Children Act, (G.O. 801 L (Son) & 9.6.23), with the exception of rule 34, mutatis mutandis apply to Reformatory Schools. Rule 57(4) under the Children Act therefore apply also to the Reformatory Schools. Separate rules have not been framed for discharge under section 13 or 14

of the Reformatory Schools Act, 1897. In the absence of any special rule for discharge under section 13 (2) rule 57(1) of the Children Act applies also in this case.

From the D.F.I.'s reply received today it is seen that as it was a case of special discharge, previous intimation was not given. The discharge presumably took place the same date the orders of Government were received by the Superintendent of the Reformatory School. It has also been ascertained informally that later intimation either was sent to the Collectors or D.E.O.s concerned.

The 'special' discharges take place under section 13 and 14 of the Reformatory Schools Act, 1897. It is for orders therefore whether executive instructions should be issued to the Superintendents of Certified Schools (including the Reformatory) to give interim intimation to the Collectors as soon as recommendations for the discharge of any pupil are made and then to confirm it after orders of Government issue by telegram if necessary. If this course is approved separate action may be taken.

Public may be informed that in this case no intimation was given to the Collectors and D.E.O.s concerned in the circumstances reported by the D.F.I.
