SANKARI.

To

The Secretary to Government, Local Self Government Dept.

Fort Saint George, Madras.

Through the President, District Board Salem.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following for the order of Government.

A. Dis 1332-24-52

2. Government in G.O. No. 552 dated 11th April 1924

were pleased to sanction to levy within the area under the jurisdiction of the Taluk Board of Sankari of Education tax as a surcharge on Companies tax leviable within that area.

3. In G.O. No. 349 Law Education dated 6-3-22 sanction was accorded to the levy of Education Tax on the land cess, the Profession tax and the House tax.

4. The President District Board Salem in his letter B.No. 1332-24/B-2 dated 8-5-24 suggested that the levy of Education tax on House tax and Profession tax may be cancelled and a rate of three pies per rupee of land revenue alone may be adopted as suggested in G.O. No. 280 Law Education dated 22-2-23.

5. The subject was placed before the Taluk Board which at its meeting held on 22-5-24 passed a resolution to the effect that the Educational tax need not be levied on any of the taxes (Vide copy of resolution No. 12 dated

22-5-24 is enclosed). This was

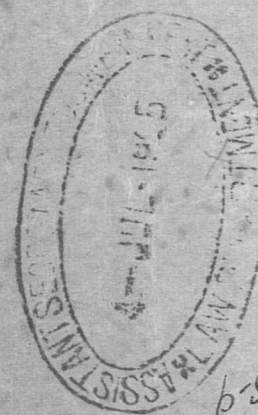

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

President.

This is not sufficient for sanction and has been obtained

322/D of 24 dated 30-5-24 and no education cess was therefore collected.

6. The subject was again brought to the notice of the Board which at its meeting held on 19th December 1924 passed a resolution to the effect that the question will be considered next year (Vide copy of ~~Resolution~~ Resolution No 7 dated 19-12-24 is enclosed)

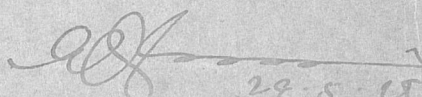

7. The subject was finally placed before the Taluk Board at its meeting held on 12th May 1925 and the Board in its resolution No.11 dated 12-5-25 resolved to levy the education cess on all the taxes prevailing in the Board viz., Land Revenue, Tax on Companies, Profession Tax and House tax at three pies in the rupee (Vide copy of the resolution is enclosed)

8. I request that Government will be pleased to sanction the ~~education cess on all the taxes~~ levy of education cess on the taxes referred to above so as to enable this Board to improve the Elementary Education under its control.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
