To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

LAW (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

In their Order No. 1787.Mis.Law (Education) dated 22nd December 1923, Government sanctioned the payment of a rent of Rs 175 per mensem for the building known as Sowcar's Bangalow in which the Government School of Engineering, Trichinopoly is now located. The Superintendent of the school has now brought to my notice that the present building besides being defective in its lighting, and insufficient for the growing needs of the school is kept in a bad state of repairs by the landlord and that the stables and outhouses where classes are held will in all probability collapse if not attended to before the rains. The Superintendent further states that the owner has declined to put up a service tap in the compound and that he is unwilling to execute a lease deed for ^{two} years unless
