Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 16th instant, we have to inform you that on 1st April 1924 the cost of a first saloon "B" rate return ticket from Bombay to London and back was £.140/- and of a similar ticket from Aden to London and back £.112/-. The actual rupee equivalent of this sum depends on the current rate of exchange on the day that we received payment for passengers' tickets. As we do not trace having issued you and your wife tickets for the "Kaisar-I-Hind" which left here on the 29th March 1924 we cannot say the actual amount in rupees that would have been payable by you.

Yours faithfully,
Pro. Mackinnon Mackenzie & Co.

Sir,

With reference to your No. 354 B-4 dated the 18th April 1925, I have the honour to submit the information called for as far as I can.

2. The Principal here pays himself - and so my pay when on leave was paid direct into the Imperial Bank, Ootacamund by the Acting Principal, and not paid in England.

3. As far as I understand it, I am eligible for the return passage for my wife and myself together with Overseas Allowance of Rs 300/- per mensem paid at 2/- in the Rupee (less of course the Overseas Allowance at Rs 250/- per mensem already drawn) from 1924/25. I should be grateful if you would kindly tell me if this is correct - as I am anxious not to pay myself anything beyond what is due to me.

I have the honour to be,

The Reverend W.H.G. Padfield is entitled to draw overseas pay from 1st April 1924 at £ 30/- per mensem if drawn in London or at Rs. 300 per mensem if drawn in India. From his letter on page 8 C.F. it is seen that payments are made only in India. He is therefore entitled to draw the difference of Rs. 50 per mensem (Rs. 300 now sanctioned - Rs. 250 already drawn) for the twelve months from 1st April 1924. If, however, payment of this difference be made in sterling in London, the arrears due will have to be calculated according to Rule 11 of the Superior Civil Services (Revision of Pay and Pension) Rules, 1924 published on pages 207 to 220 of Part I of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 3rd February 1925.

2. As regards his passage money, he can now be reimbursed by the School Committee only the actual cost of the return journey from London to Bombay subject to the maximum allowed under the Rules viz. cost of a passage from London to Bombay by P and O 1st class B.
This claim should be supported by a certificate as to the correctness of the amounts actually paid, signed by the Shipping Company or Agent. The letter on page 4 C.F. does not serve the purpose. The amount should be paid only on a bill prepared in Form J (page 585 of Part I of the Fort St. George Gazette dated 31st March 1925).

3. With reference to paragraph 5 on page 9 C.F. Mr. Padfield's attention may be drawn to the Rules issued by the Government which apply to officers of the Indian Educational Service. A passage fund account should be opened, the passage pay of Rs. 50 per mensem should be adjusted every month and the payment from this fund for passages when claimed should be regulated accordingly. These accounts should be produced at the time of audit.

4. The file may now, if necessary, be forwarded to the Accountant-General u.o. with reference to the last sentence of his note on page 2 ante.

Dear Mr. Krishnamachariyar,

When I was at Lawrence Memorial School yesterday, Mr. Padfield told me that he had made a reference to the Government regarding his eligibility for overseas pay and for passage concession in accordance with the recommendations of the Lee Commission. He told me that you had sent him certain forms to be filled up and sent to the Accountant General. The Accountant General has however nothing to do now with the Lawrence Memorial School. Mr. Padfield pays himself from the banking account of the school and is responsible to the Board of Governors. I understand what he really wanted to know was what were the concessions in each respect applicable to a member of the Imperial (Indian) Educational Service. He wants to know what his overseas and passage allowance he ought to draw. I presume he would get the sanction of the Board of Governors and that the Accountant General is not concerned in the matter. May I see the file on the subject or does this note solve any difficulties you may feel?
