I am directed to forward a copy of a letter from the High Commissioner for India, No.H.C.32331, dated the 28th January 1925, with its enclosures, and to request that the number of copies of the book "Commercial Relations between India and England" by Dr. Bal Krishna, which the Government of Madras may decide to purchase, may be intimated direct to the High Commissioner for India.

"COMMERCIAL RELATIONS BETWEEN INDIA AND ENGLAND"
BY DR. BAL KRISHNA. APPLICATION FROM THE PUBLISHERS FOR PATRONAGE.

I am directed by the High Commissioner for India to forward herewith, for the consideration of the Government of India, copy of the correspondence noted in the margin on the above subject.

I am to send also, in this connection, copy of the further marginally-noted papers.

L.S.E. to I.O., 1st June 1922.)

It will be seen that the London School of Economics approached the India Office in the matter in 1922, but that the application was refused. It is understood that this decision was based mainly on the fact that arrangements had already been made for publication of the work without cost to the author, and that any assistance given by the India Office would therefore in effect only serve to remunerate him for his labour. There was also the fact that any assistance given in this case would probably lead to applications from several other Indian students who were then preparing degree theses. Now that the book has been published these arguments would not appear to apply, as it would seem that the only point now to be considered is whether any copies of the work are required in India for official purposes, and the High Commissioner would be obliged if he could be informed of the Government of India's decision in the matter in due course.

Dear Sir,

At the suggestion of Dr. Bal Krishna, Principal of Rajaram College, Kolhapur, we are sending you herewith a copy of his new book 'Commercial Relations between India and England', which we have just published at the price of 14s. net. He suggests that the India Office may be prepared to purchase say 100 copies of the book or more, and we shall be glad to know whether ~~xxxx~~ we may hope for this order. We believe you will find the book to be of considerable importance, and well worthy of official support.

Dear Sir,

I write at the request of Professor Bal Krishna, who is now in India, to ask if you could see your way to make a grant towards the cost of publication of Professor Krishna's book, 'Commercial relations between India and England'. This work has obtained for the author the degree of Ph.D.(Lond.), and it is to be published in the series of studies in economics issued under the auspices of this School. Although arrangements for publication have been made the terms are such that the author receives nothing in the way of a royalty until after 1,000 copies have been sold. Naturally, with a book of this description, this would take a very considerable time. If a grant could be made towards the cost of publication, the tentative agreement would be modified proportionately in the author's favour. The book is a substantial one, and, as you are aware, the costs of production at the present time are heavy. I very much hope that this application will receive favourable consideration from you.

I am, etc.,

Sd. B.M. Headican,

Librarian.

Copy of a letter dated the 31st May 1922, from India Office
London, to the Librarian, London School of Economics.

In reply to your letter of 12th May, I am directed by the Secretary of State for India in Council to inform you that, in the present state of Indian finances, it is necessary to restrict the grant of assistance to very special cases in which the publication of a work can only be secured by the aid of a government subvention. His Lordship regrets that he is unable, therefore, to entertain your application on behalf of Professor Bal Krishna's work.

Copy of a letter No.R. & R.725/22, dated the 1st June 1922, from the Librarian, London School of Economics and Political Science, London, to the Under Secretary of State for India, London.

I have to thank you for your letter of the 31st May. I quite understand the position; and, as stated in my former communication, publication of Professor Bal Krishna's work without expense to the author has been arranged for.
