DESPATCHED

16 NOV 1925

To

The Chief Engineer, P. W. D.

Will office please see that the correct form is adopted in writing these names? In writing Indian names, the rule is that M-R-Ry sh^d be prefixed to names of officials drawing Rs 500 & above. In spite of this, office will use Messrs etc which are not only not authorised but are also bad English.

English.
I do hope such slipshod work will be discouraged. If the Govt office will not observe Govt rules, who will?
