MR S.R.SAVUR.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.1026 dated the 18th June, I am directed to inform you that according to Leave salary Certificate No.ABV/205.Edn., issued by the Accountant General (Madras) on the 25th October 1923 the leave granted to Mr Savur and the extensions admissible were as follows:—

Leave granted:—

(a) Leave on average pay	2 months 22 days
(b) Study leave	12 months -

Extension Admissible:—

(c) Leave on average pay	3 months 16 days
(d) Leave on half average pay (not due)	5 months 22 days

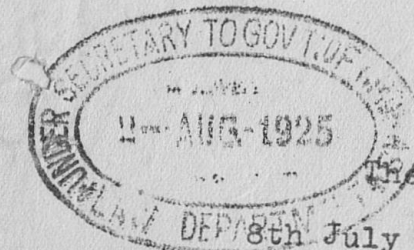

24 months -

The amount given at (d) was to make up the maximum leave then at one time/admissible if study leave were taken but the two years' limit has since been raised to two years four months so that the amount now admissible under (d) is presumably six months.

2. The leave as modified by the extensions since granted by this Office is now (not as stated in this Office General Department letter No.H.C.34310, dated the 8th April 1925, but) as follows:—

Nature of leave	Period	From	To
(a) On average pay	2 months 22 days	9th July 1923	30th Sept.1923.
(b) Study	12 months -	1st Oct. "	" " 1924
(c) On average pay (to complete 4 months)	1 month 8 days	1st Oct.1924	8th November1924
(d) On half average pay (due)	4 months 16 days	9th Nov. "	24th March 1925
(e) " " (not due)	6 months -	25th March 1925	24th Sept.1925
(f) Without allowances	3 months 15 days	25th Sept "	8th Jan.1926

The leave which had already been extended up to the 8th July 1925 is being extended up to the 8th January, 1926 and Leave salary is being issued (provisionally) as shown at (e). I have to request that you will please state whether you concur.

I have the honour to be,

My
Hon

I beg to inform that about three months back you extended my leave very kindly by six months, i.e., up till the 9th of January next, in order to enable me to finish a piece of research work which I had in hand. On account of certain unexpected results obtained since then, I now find that I shall be unable to complete the work within the then stipulated time. My Professor, however, who is co-operating with me in this particular piece of work, is confident that the work can be finished before the end of August next. May I therefore request you to kindly extend my leave till the end of September next?

In view of the work that I have been doing here and of the high cost of living here, may I also request you to consider, if possible, if my case as an exceptional one and grant me

an allowance for that period?

I am sending a copy of this application to you through the Director of Public Instruction, Madras. Lest it should be delayed in transmission, I am sending this to you separately.

Kindly cable your decision to the address "Savur, care Hoondlee, London".

Law (Educ.) Department

Sir,

I wish to support very strongly the request of Dr. S. R. Savur for an extension of his leave so as to enable him to stay in this University ^(the end of) until Aug 1926. If he leaves at the end of November he will not have had even a full term of the new session. His work here is developing into something important and he has already published several papers in the subject of Photoelasticity,

b
in which he is now making serious advances. I find his cooperation most useful and, in the interests both of scientific research and of Dr. Savur himself, a prolongation of his stay here is highly desirable. I should not, normally, appeal for such an extension, but Dr. Savur's case is entirely exceptional: I have had no student from India who can compare with him in research ability.

I am

14th October 1925

Sir,

I wish to give my strongest support to the application made by Mr. S. R. Savur for an extension of his leave.

Mr. Savur is engaged in a piece of research work on elasticity which is expected to yield very important results.
He has shown himself to be a first-class experimentalist, and I trust that his important work will not be stopped through his inability to continue here as a student. I therefore hope that you will consent to his application.

Yours faithfully,

H. J. Harris
Senior Tutor.

Government of Madras.
