Revision of the Grant-in-Aid Code.

11-15 a.m. *368 Q.—Mr. K. PRABHAKARAN TAMPAN: Will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) whether the Government have decided to appoint a committee to examine the working of the Grant-in-Aid Code and submit proposals for its revision; and

(b) if the answer is in the affirmative, when they will commence their work and whether private institutions will be adequately represented in the committee's personnel?

A.—(a) Government have not decided to appoint a committee. The whole matter is engaging the attention of Government.

(b) Does not arise.

Mr. C. RAMALINGA REDDI:—"Sir, I just want to ask one supplementary question on question No. 367."

The hon. the DEPUTY PRESIDENT:—"I am sorry, we have just passed on to question No. 368."

Rao Bahadur A. S. KRISHNA RAO PANTULU:—"May I know from the hon. the Minister for Education how long the proposals for the revision of the Grant-in-Aid Code have been under consideration. Sir, he is engaged in conversation with the hon. Member from Chittoor and so, although I put the question loudly, he has not heard me."

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—"I am very sorry."

Rao Bahadur A. S. KRISHNA RAO PANTULU:—"Sir, will the hon. the Minister be pleased to state how long the proposals for the revision of the Grant-in-Aid Code have been under consideration?"

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—"They have been under consideration for nearly two years. The reason is that first of all there is financial difficulty in giving effect to any proposal framed. Secondly, the matter was referred to the Secondary Education Board and they were not unanimous in their conclusions and thirdly we have to gather opinions from the managers of institutions and when their opinions are gathered they will be classified by a special officer who will go into the subject."

Sriman SASIBHUSHAN RATH Mahasayo:—"May I know which is the more important reason which stands in the way of revising the Grant-in-Aid Code?"

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—"It is open to the hon. Member to take any one of the reasons stated by me as important."

Sriman SASIBHUSHAN RATH Mahasayo:—"I think it is the Member in charge of the portfolio that has to say which is the more important of the reasons."

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—"I have given the three important reasons."

Sriman SASIBHUSHAN RATH Mahasayo:—"Which of them is the most important is my question."
