D.O.No: 1986B-1 8 6.8.25

My dear Sir Venkataratnam,

Students' Advisory Council-^{Committee}

Secretary - Your letter No: 7660

dated 29th July 1925.

--

I am directed to say that Mr. Davies has made a representation to the Government in which he states that as the allowance he drew as Secretary to the Committee was classified in 1916 as a remunerative local allowance, which would count towards leave allowances and pension, he is entitled to hold the appointment on the same conditions till he retires. This is under the consideration of the Government..

2. I am to request that, till a decision is reached on this question, the existing provisional arrangement may be continued.)

Yours sincerely,

V.T.K.
