To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (Education) Department.
Port Saint George.

Sir.

R. Veeraswami Naidu, permanent peon, Office of the Deputy Inspector of Schools, Trichinopoly Range, now acting in the Office of the Deputy Inspector of Schools, Kulitalai Range became insane in 1919 and was sent to the Lunatic Asylum where he remained from 3-6-1919 to 19-4-1922. He was discharged on 20-4-1922 and the authorities in charge of the Asylum recommended one month's leave from the date of ~~one~~ discharge. The peon was granted extraordinary leave without allowance^s from 3-6-1919 to 19-5-1922 as he could not, as an inferior Government Servant, be granted any other leave without incurring extra cost to State. Now this affects the increment of the peon which he could have drawn from 1-3-1924 if the extraordinary leave did not intervene. But the circumstances under which he was granted the above leave were entirely beyond his control. I have therefore the honour to recommend that Government be pleased to declare the extraordinary leave without allowances taken from 1-3-1921 to 19-5-1922 to count for increment under the amended Fundamental Rule 26 and Article 160-B of the Civil Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

The D. P. I. recommends that the extra-ordinary leave granted to R. Veeraswami Nayudu from 1-3-1921 to 19-5-1922 may be declared to count for increment under ^{the} amended Fundamental Rule 26 and article 160 B of C. S. R. The A. G. says that under Fundamental Rule 26 (b) the leave from 1-1-1922 only may be allowed to count for increment. Under C. S. R. 160 B, it seems that the Government have power to declare the period ^{from} 1-3-1921 to 1-1-1922 also to count for increment. The further remarks of the Accountant General may be invited u.o.

It is stated at A on 1st that extra ordinary leave was granted for the period in question, as the person could not, as an inferior Govt servant, be granted any other leave without incurring extra cost to Govt.

p. 20

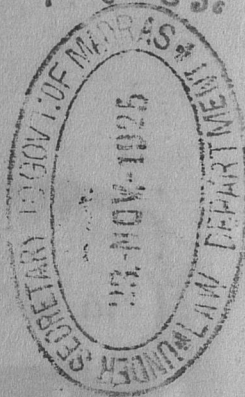

Extra ordinary leave should not however be granted (both under the C.S.R. and the F.R.S.) ^{+ art. 332 CSR} when other leave is admissible. Simply ^{+ F.R. 85} because leave salary is not admissible to a Govt servant during ordinary leave, such ordinary leave cannot be called extra ordinary leave. Of therefore, the person in question was entitled to ordinary leave (i.e. leave earned by duty) in respect of the period of absence in question, he must be granted such leave and it should be debited to his leave account. Of ~~portion~~ ^{becomes} of the period of absence after 11/12 ~~has~~ to be treated, in accordance with the above view, ordinary leave, no special order of Govt is necessary for granting such ^{vide FR 26(b)} period for increment, as under F.R.S. ^{under C.S.R.} leave without allowance will count for increment. It is for orders whether the law may be requested to consider these points and revise the draft suitably. Of, however, it is considered that it is not worth while to examine ~~them~~, the draft below may be accepted. ^{Not worth while. Accepted.}
