2. In the rules framed under section 3(VII) of the Madras Elementary Education Act of 1920 an elementary school place has been defined as suitable accommodation subject to a minimum of 9½ Sq. feet of floor space per pupil. In granting recognition under rule 6 of the rules framed under section 41(2) of the Act, the building used should be suitable. The criterion for judging whether the building is suitable or not is whether the above floor space- besides light, ventilation etc has been provided for the pupils attending the school.

3. In several of the elementary schools (Board and aided) the children are huddled up much to the detriment of
