QUESTION.

Mr. Muhammad Moosa Sait.

THE LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

776. Will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state-

(a) whether the practice in the two Muslim High Schools in Madras, viz., the Government Madras-i-Azam and the late Harris High School up to its abolition by the Mission authorities in 1923, was invariably to levy school fees at half the standard rate from all Muslim boys;

(b) whether the same practice was followed in the school year 1923-24 in the Harris High School while it was under the direct management of the Government Educational department, as also in the Government Madras-i-Azam;

(c) whether since the transfer by Government of the management of the late Harris High School to the managing body of the Muslim High School ~~founded in the interest of the Muslim youths through Muslim enterprise to fillup the gap caused by the abolition of the Harris High School and the unwillingness of the Government to continue it~~ the Director of Public Instruction ~~had~~ issued orders to the said managing body placing restrictions on the practice of levying the fees at less than the standard rates and extending similar restrictions to the Government Madras-i-Azam with effect from the beginning of 1925;

(d) whether the order of the Director referred to in (c) was issued in spite of

THE LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT

Will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state-

(a) whether the practice in the two Muslim High Schools in Lahore, viz., the Government Madras-i-Azam and the Late Hazrat Nizam-ul-Uloom, was invariably to levy school fees at half the standard rate from all Muslim boys;

(b) whether the same practice was followed in the school year 1953-54 in the two High Schools while it was under the direct management of the Government Educational Department, as also in the Government Madras-i-Azam;

(c) whether since the transfer of Govern- ment of the management of the Late Hazrat Nizam-ul-Uloom to the managing body of the Muslim High School, the practice of levying fees at half the standard rate has been entered into the school records and the school authorities have been asked to observe the same;

(d) whether the order of the Director of Public Instruction issued in 1953, directing the said managing body placing restrictions on the practice of levying the fees at less than the standard rates and ex- tending similar restrictions to the Government Madras-i-Azam with effect from the beginning of 1955;

(e) whether the order of the Director referred to in (c) was issued in spite of the fact that the Government Educational Department, as also in the Government Madras-i-Azam, was under the direct management of the Government Educational Department, as also in the Government Madras-i-Azam;

of the previous representation of the managing body of the Muslim High School and the Board of Visitors of the Madras-i-Azam emphasizing the necessity of continuing the long standing practice and the set back of the Educational progress of Muslim youths likely to ensue from its discontinuance; and whether the hon. the Minister's attention has been drawn to the complaints and criticisms appearing in the Urdu Press regarding the change of attitude on the part of the Educational Department in this respect and the adverse consequences of the Director's orders referred to above;

(f) whether the hon. the Minister is aware that the Government Educational Department, as also in the Government Madras-i-Azam, was under the direct management of the Government Educational Department, as also in the Government Madras-i-Azam, and that the Government Educational Department, as also in the Government Madras-i-Azam, was under the direct management of the Government Educational Department, as also in the Government Madras-i-Azam;

(g) considering the infancy of the Muslim High School, the laudable object which brought it into existence, the difficulties the community had to surmount before it was an accomplished fact and the need for special facilities and help which requires from Government at least for some time to come, whether the hon. the Minister will be pleased to order the relaxation of the suspension of the restrictions imposed upon the school by the Director and also the withdrawal of the orders issued to the Madras-i-Azam?
