OFFICE OF THE HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR INDIA,
42, GROSVENOR GARDENS,
LONDON, S.W. 1.

5th March, 1925.

From: The JOINT SECRETARY to the HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR INDIA,
Indian Students' Department,

To: The SECRETARY to the GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,
Education Department, Madras.

Sir,

I am directed to enclose for the information of the Government of Madras reports of the Government Scholars under the supervision of the High Commissioner for the year ending 30th September 1924.

2. I am also to enclose a separate statement showing the dates on which the Scholars for 1924 reported, and the arrangements which have been made for their courses.

3. I am to say that in the ordinary course the Scholarships of

Miss T. Joseph,
Miss L. H. Philipsz,
Miss A. Pichamuthu,
Mr. K. Muhammad,
Mr. D. S. Pillai,
Mr. C. K. Taylor,
Mr. K. Venkataraman,

will expire during the current year, and it does not appear that extension will be required in the cases of

Miss T. Joseph,
Miss A. Pichamuthu,
Mr. K. Muhammad,
Mr. C. K. Taylor,
Mr. K. Venkataraman.

Full and formal application will, however, be submitted in due course in all cases in which an extension should ultimately appear necessary or advisable.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,

JOINT SECRETARY.

✓
P. J. THOMAS.

Grant-in-Aid.

Madras.

Mr. Thomas, who was granted £150 in 1922 to enable him to complete his research in Indian Economic History, applied for a further grant since the work had taken longer than he anticipated, and was given an additional £75 to cover a further period of six months. He has obtained an appointment as Lecturer in Economics at University College, Colombo.

G. SUNDARAM.

MADRAS

Scw.

Mr. Sundaram Continued his practical training with the Metropolitan Vickers Company, and his Scholarship would ordinarily have terminated in December 1923 as his training would be completed by that time. A proposal however, was made by the Company, to give him a further three months training at their Works with a view to his acting as one of their representatives at the British Empire Exhibition. In view of the fact that he would get valuable training for the three months, the Government of Madras agreed to the extension of his Scholarship for that period. He returned to India in August 1924.

Mr. Sundaram was a most satisfactory Scholar and took full advantage of all the opportunities afforded to him.
