Sir, Fort Saint George, Madras.

Commerce - Institute of Madras - Advisory Council - Reconstitution - G.O.No. 1615 Law(Edn) Department dated 26th December 1922.

I have the honour to refer you to the G.O.
quoted above and to say that the period of 2 years mentioned therein has expired. In reconstituting the Council I would ask Government to consider the advisability of omitting the 'Collector of Madras' as an ex-officio member of the Council.
The Collector was often asked to give his opinion as to whether persons holding permanent unrestricted auditor's certificates granted by Government may be allowed to take and train apprentices and was in a position to give some opinion when he had Incometax work. Now I have no longer Incometax work and I have therefore no special knowledge about the auditors. On the other hand I am a member of so many bodies in Madras City and it is therefore best that I am relieved of all honorary functions where I cannot be useful. In the circumstances I would suggest that some officer from the Incometax or the Accountant General's office office may be appointed instead with due permission.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

2. I beg to state in this connection that I have proposed the Commissioner of Income Tax, Madras, as an Ex-officio member in place of the Collector of Madras for the reason that the latter has expressed in his letter to Government No. A.1-71-25 dated 14-1-25 that he has no longer Income tax work and that he has therefore no special knowledge about auditors.

3. All the non-official members and the Commissioner of Income tax, Madras have expressed their willingness to serve on the council.

C.No. 161 C - From the Collector of Madras, No. A-1-71- dated 14-1-25.

Subject.- Advisory Council for the Institute of Commerce - Madras.

The ~~constitution~~ of the Advisory Council for the Institute of Commerce, Madras, which was first formed in 1918 (G.O. 1553 (Fm) dated 4-12-18), was based on the following recommendation of the Committee appointed to advise the Government on the question of establishing the Institute:-

"Subject to the control of the Government the Institute will be under the D.P.I., who will be assisted by an Advisory Council, consisting of the D.P.I. as President, the Principal of the Institute as Secretary, the Collector of Madras, the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies and members nominated by Government from among the Chartered accountants, bankers and merchants of Madras in such a way as to secure due representation of such commercial organizations as the Chambers of Commerce"

2. It will be observed that the Collector of Madras is specifically mentioned in the above recommendation and he has been on the Advisory Council since its first constitution. The present Collector says that as Incometax work has been taken away from him he has no special knowledge of auditors and that he cannot be of much use on the Council. He therefore suggests that in his place some officer of the Incometax Department or the A.G.'s office may be appointed. For orders whether the Collector of Madras may be removed from the Council. If so, it seems better to appoint an officer of the Incometax Deptt. ex-officio. preferably the Commr. of Incometax. The D.P.I. may be requested u.o. to submit proposals for the reconstitution of the Council. In
