2. A suggestion for the transfer of the Muhammadan training school for Masters from Arcot to Trichinopoly was made by the Muslim Literary Society, Trichinopoly, in 1921. Mr. Littlehailes then advised against the transfer of the school and expressed the opinion that the Muhammadan training school at Arcot should be made a permanent factor in the education of North Arcot and contiguous districts. He added however that he was examining the question of the formation of a temporary training school for Muhammadans at Trichinopoly. The Hon'ble the Minister then noted as follows:-

"I am not in favour of opening another school temporarily at Trichinopoly. It is becoming the burden of song to get these institutions near at home for the convenience of one particular community. They must struggle on as all other persons in the locality."

In pursuance of the above orders the D.P.I. was asked not to proceed with the further consideration of opening a school at Trichinopoly.
