To

The Law (Education) Department.

Question,

Mr. S. Satyamurti:

THE LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

731. Will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state:

(a) the exact nature of the work, actual teaching work besides the usual supervision, which the headmaster of the Training School, ^{Tanjore,} does, in the school;

(b) whether it is a fact that the previous record of work of the present Headmaster is not quite good;

(c) whether it is a fact that the Director of Public Instruction had to conduct enquiries about the troubles which arose in the schools where this headmaster was working;

(d) whether it is a fact that the Government Training School is a unique school in point of strength etc., both in the model school and training sections;

(e) whether it is advisable and just in the interests of the public to entrust such a person with the responsible administration of such a school; and

(2) (f) whether it is proposed to put a senior capable officer in charge of such a school to maintain the reputation and prestige of the institution?
