LAW (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir.

The Director of the Indian Institute of Science Bangalore reports that the Senate of the Institute having become increasingly impressed by the deficiency in workshop practice displayed by many of the applicants for admission to the department of Electrical Technology has explored the possibility of instituting a system of liaison-training under which applicants for admission to that department may be required to devote one year to work shop practice prior to admission. The mechanical workshop attached to that department of electrical Technology at Bangalore is reported to be inadequate to supplying this need and it is not considered justifiable by the Director of the Institute to establish a department of Mechanical Engineering at

No. 679 dated 2-5-1925

The Government approve of the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction that such of the students in the department of Electrical Technology in the Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore, as are deficient in workshop practice may be admitted into the College of Engineering, Bombay, for a year's training on condition that each student admitted pay the tuition fee prescribed for Engineer

Engineers students of the college and also a contribution of Rs 7 a year to the college Athletic Club.

2. This arrangement will hold good so long as it does not affect the training of regular students of the college or necessitate the employment of additional staff.
