From (Name) R. Littlehales, Esq., M.A.,

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Law (Education)

Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit copy of a letter dated 7th May 1924 from Mrs. Cravan, Peripatetic Teacher of Music for European schools and for the Presidency Training school for Mistresses, Madras, in which she applies for the payment of a conveyance allowance to her. Her present salary is Rs.180 per mensem and the Inspector of European Schools considers that with that salary she cannot possibly provide herself with any conveyance save a bicycle and that travelling all over Madras on a bicycle does not conduce to efficiency nor to economy of time and effort and he supports her request. I am also of opinion that Mrs. Craven's request is reasonable and I beg accordingly to recommend for the ^{Sanction} ~~education~~ of Government the payment of a conveyance allowance of Rs.50 per mensem with effect from 1st January 1925. If the proposal is sanctioned the sum of Rs.100 which is required for payment in the current year can be met by re-appropriation which I shall sanction from ~~and~~ the anticipated savings under the voted heads under 31 B(a)(ii) Education-Secondary-Reserved - European - on receipt of orders of Government on this letter. As regards the provision of Rs.600 required in 1925-26, I request that it may be included in the budget for 1925-26 under the head "31 R (b)(a) Education- Secondary-Government Secondary schools - European (ii) Special staff - girls' schools - allowances - House rent and other allowances.

I have the honour to be,

S i r,

Your most obedient servant,

W. Craven

Letter from Mrs. F.N. Craven, Peripatitic Teacher of Music, to H.O. Kershaw Esq., Inspector of European Schools Madras.

"I have the honour to submit this my application for a conveyance allowance and to request you to be so good as to procure this allowance for ~~me~~ ^{me}.

The designation of my appointment will show that the nature of my duties involves visits to all the European schools in the City and this means that I have got to use a conveyance to find my way about to these schools, I visit one school a day, frequently two ^{or three} ~~and three~~ the same day, this means some expenditure and I think it is but just that I should be given at least Rs.50 a month to meet these charges as Madras is a city of great distances and the weather for the ^{greater} ~~greater~~ part of the year is of a very trying nature.

The post of peripatetic teacher of music was first created in 1916 temporarily for a period of one year. The post has been continued year after year and the current sanction to its continuance expires on the 1st March 1926. The duties of the officer ~~are~~ were attached to be

- (1) To lecture on the theory and practice of class singing once a week at a central institution in Madras for the benefit of teachers in European schools;
- (2) To visit European Schools in the city of Madras by rotation and give lessons on music; and also
- (3) To visit occasionally the Presidency Training School for Mistresses ^{Equine} and give lessons on music.

2. The D.P.I. recommends that the present salary attached to the post viz., Rs.180, is not sufficient to enable the officer to maintain a suitable conveyance for the proper discharge of her duties which mainly lie in the city of Madras. He accordingly recommends that the officer might be granted a conveyance allowance of Rs.50 a month.

2 The following are a few instances of officers employed in the Presidency town who get conveyance allowance:

Officer	Pay. Rs.	Amount of conveyance allowance. Rs.	Remarks.
(1) Lady Assistant Surgeon, Maternity Hospital.	200-450	30	No special conveyance prescribed.
(2) Sub-Inspectors of the Intelligence Dept.	90-150	25	If a motor-cycle is maintained.
(3) Assistant Inspectress of Girls' Schools	200-20-400 25-500	50	If a motor car, or a trap or a governess cart is maintained.

In view of the fact that the teacher of music has to visit about a dozen schools situated in different parts of the city, this Department may support the request for a conveyance allowance. The amount may be fixed at Rs.30 and the officer required to maintain either a motor-cycle, a trap or a governess cart. The file may be sent to Finance for remarks.

The temporary post of the pre-petetic teacher of music was created in C.O. no 244 (Ex) of 6/7/16 on a specific rate of pay (Rs 180) while fixing this rate the amount of travelling ~~was~~ taken the teacher will have to do was taken into account. vide Ph 2-3 and the pencil note at p 6 of the C.O. at (D)

When a request for an increase in pay to meet the conveyance charge was made in the year 1917, I am left them selves considered that it should be rejected as the pay was fixed so as to cover the conveyance charge also and had the then incumbent to agree to continue without any increase vide notes and correspondence to

(A) C.O. no 683 law of 24/5/1917. In view of these facts and of the general rule once laid down that every Govt officer of a specified rank is expected to maintain a conveyance suited to rank and is bound to maintain without claim for an additional allowance such means of conveyance as are requisite for ordinary duties included in training and normal inspection work attached to the office, I am left may be requested to negative the recommendation of D.P.D.

C.O. 5/1/25 The pay of the post has been fixed with 5/3/25 reference to all the circumstances, this is not adequate justification for the grant of a conveyance allowance. The pay should be

The Finance Department is not in favour of granting a conveyance allowance to the music teacher but would consider a proposal for increasing her pay. The increase in the pay should apparently be such as to enable the teacher to maintain a conveyance. It is for orders whether the pay may be raised to Rs. 200. or whether the Director should be consulted.

Mrs. Craven--Peripatetic teacher of music - conveyance allowance.

The D.P.I recommends the grant of a conveyance allowance of Rs.50 a month to Mrs. Craven as she is unable to maintain a suitable conveyance with her present pay. When the pay of the post of Peripatetic teacher of music was fixed, the fact that the officer had to meet conveyance charges was taken into account. Further it is a general rule that every officer whose duties involve touring is expected to provide himself (or herself) with the means of conveyance that may be necessary for the efficient performance of his (or her) work without claim for any additional allowance. There is no case, therefore, for the grant of a conveyance allowance to Mrs. Craven.

2. In view of the fact that the pay of the post, viz, Rs.180 was fixed so long ago as 1916, some increase in the pay may perhaps be justifiable.

The Director may see the above notes and offer his remarks as to whether an increase in pay rather than a conveyance allowance may be granted. He may also be asked to suggest a suitable increase.

In G.O. No. 244, Educn., dt.
6-3-1916, the Govt. approved the proposal of the S.O. 2. to appoint a peripatetic teacher of music for the European schools in Madras and for the Presidency
Training school for mistresses, Egmore, on a consolidated salary of Rs. 180 p.m. temporarily for a period of one year from the 1st March 1916. The sanction has been extended from year to year; and in G.O. No. 149, Law (Educn.), dt. 2.2.25, the Govt. have sanctioned the retention of the post for a further period of one year from 1.3.25.

(C)

The first incumbent of the post was Miss Iles, who held it until her resignation in 1921.
Mrs. Braven, who was appointed as successor, joined the post in the forenoon of the 14th January 22.
In G.O. No. 41 Law (Educn.),
dt. 10.1.22, the Govt. sanctioned a consolidated salary of Rs. 180 p.m. to the peripatetic teacher of music, the post of 7th assistant in the Training school for mistresses, Egmore, being held in abeyance.

2. Law (Educ.) consider that, as the pay of the post was fixed at Rs. 180 in 1916, some increase in the pay may, perhaps, be justifiable; and the S. O. 9. has suggested the raising of it to Rs. 220. Mr. Braven, the present incumbent of the post, has been holding it only since 14.1.22. In view of this, and also to provide an annual increment, which would serve as an incentive to continued good work on the part of the incumbent, it is submd that, instead of raising the pay straightway to Rs. 220, as suggested by the S. O. 9., an incremental scale of pay may be adopted. Perhaps a scale of Rs. (180-5-200) may be suitable for the peripatetic teacher of music. If this scale is adopted, the extra average cost will be Rs. 13 ⁵/₉ p.m. or Rs. 163 p.a.

ORDER.

Misc

No. 728 dated 8-5- 1925.

The Government are unable to approve of the proposal of the Director of Public Instruction that Mrs. Craven, temporary peripatetic teacher of music, should be given a conveyance allowance. The pay of the post is however raised from Rs 180 to Rs 200 a month.

2. Necessary reappropriation of funds should be made before the additional expenditure is incurred.
