THE LAW (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

* 864 Will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state

(a) whether private aided educational institutions are required to register themselves under section 26 of the Indian Company's Act; and
(b) whether insistence of this condition has caused considerable inconvenience to charitable organisations which are maintaining educational institutions merely for the purpose of spreading education?

Law (Education) Department

(A) Please see the orders in G.O.No.665, dated 7th June 1920, in which the Government have laid down that the managements of educational institutions who apply for grants for the purchase of lands or for their acquisition under the Land Acquisition Act should get themselves registered under some Act of the Governor General in Council or of the Governor of Fort St. George in Council. In the case of other institutions it does not appear that the Government have issued orders directing that the managing bodies should get themselves registered. But the D.P.I noted as follows in 1920:-

"Since 1915 this department has pressed and still continues to press the management of every aided school which applies newly for recognition to register itself under the Indian Companies Act unless the management is a mission body or a Rajah or a Zamindar."

The D.P.I may be consulted u.o. as to what the practice is at present and to suggest a draft answer to the question.

The practice is as stated in the Secretariat note. It is very desirable that this practice should continue so as to ensure financial stability and permanence in schools. We have had bitter experience of the results of there being no such registration, e.g. in the schools started and managed by Rao Bahadur C.Ramanujam Chetty and his brother C.Cannan Chetty. The answer to (a) might be ^(a) This is generally the case in schools applying newly for recognition'.

(b) Government have no information.

As regards (b) I am, of course, aware that insistence on registration is not popular as it involves a certain amount of trouble and some financial arrangements which may be inconvenient. Again it is not clear what 'charitable organisations' Mr.Ranganatha Mudaliar is referring to.

Registration of private aided educational institutions under section 26 of the Indian Companies Act.

* 612 Q.—Mr. A. RANGANATHA MUDALIYAR: Will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) whether private aided educational institutions are required to register themselves under section 26 of the Indian Companies Act; and

(b) whether insistence on this condition has caused considerable inconvenience to charitable organizations which are maintaining educational institutions merely for the purpose of spreading education?

A.—(a) This is generally the case in schools applying newly for recognition.

(b) The Government have no information.

Mr. A. RANGANATHA MUDALIYAR:—"May I know what the reasons are for insisting upon its registration before an institution is recognized?"

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—"It is for the purpose of recognizing an authorized correspondent of an institution; if the institution is registered, it will be a regular institution for distribution of grants, and grants are distributed only to recognized institutions. An institution which has not been registered does not possess an authorized agent who is to receive the grant on its behalf. So it is more for the purpose of recognizing a real authority on behalf of the institution than for anything else."

Mr. A. RANGANATHA MUDALIYAR:—"The answer says that this is generally the case. May I know the special circumstances which are held to justify their being exempted from the rule?"

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—"If the hon. Member refers to any particular institution, I shall be glad to say why there was an exemption."

Mr. S. SATYAMURTI:—"Sir, as the purpose is said to be to have a regularly authorized correspondent for these schools, are not these schools required to be registered under the provisions of the Charitable Endowments Act XXI of 1860?"

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—"They may get registered. We do not insist. I only say that the institution should be a regularly constituted body."
