246. To reduce the allotment of Rs 8,300 for the pay of officers by Rs 100

(The necessity of I.E.S. Inspectresses)

Law (Education) Department

The provision of Rs 8,300 referred to is for the pay of two Assistant Inspectresses. The Government have directed that these posts should, at a suitable opportunity, be abolished. This is a token motion intended to discuss the necessity of I.E.S. Inspectresses. By the abolition of the posts of Assistant Inspectresses, there will be left only two classes of officers, viz. Inspectresses and Sub-Asst. Inspectresses. There are now five Inspectresses in the I.E.S. The question whether, when the present incumbents vacate their office by retirement or otherwise, the posts of Inspectresses should be in the I.E.S. or M.E.S. will be considered when the superior educational services are reorganised in the light of the recommendations of the Lee Commission. Any suggestions made by the Hon'ble Member may be considered in that connection.
