FROM

THE VICE-CHANCELLOR,
University of Madras.

To

The Secretary to Government,
Law (Education) Department,
Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,

With reference to paragraph 3 of G.O. No.620, Law(Education), dated 16th April 1924, and in continuation of my letter No. 9941 dated the 17th September last, I have the honour, by direction of the Syndicate, to address the Government on the question of further grants to the University for 1925-26 under section 44(2)(b) of the Act of 1923 and to submit detailed proposals on the several objects of expenditure for which provision should be made by the Government in their estimates for the year 1925-26.

1. Placing the School of Economics on a permanent basis.

In this office letter No.2916, dated 7th April 1923, the Government were requested to sanction the placing of the Professorship of Economics upon a permanent basis and the payment of the Professor's salary and the salaries of the Assistant Professor, Readers and necessary staff and of the maintenance of the Department of Economics from Government Grants to the University. In the memorandum No. 1617-B-2, Law (Education), dated 27th June 1923, I was informed that one of the purposes for which the sum of Rs.88,000 included in the Budget Estimate for that year was intended was a Chair for the development of Economics, and that it was open to me to put forward a proposal for the placing of the Professorship of Economics on a permanent basis. I, however, considered it desirable not to put forward any proposals before the new Authorities could be consulted.

I placed the matter before the Academic Council at its meeting held on the 8th August 1924 and that body recommended the Syndicate to request the Government to sanction an annual recurring grant to enable the University to place the University School of Economics on a permanent basis. The Syndicate considered the recommendations of the Academic Council at its meeting held on the 6th September 1924 and I am now directed by that body to request that the Government will be pleased to include in the annual Budget the amount required for this object. The Professor of Economics submitted to the Syndicate a detailed estimate of the recurring expenditure and the Syndicate approved of the same. From the copy enclosed it will be observed that the total annual cost will be Rs. 42,000 on the assumption that a full-time Professor is appointed, and 33,370 on the assumption that a part-time Professor is appointed. As the occupant of the Chair at present is only a part-time Professor I am to request that Government will be pleased to provide a recurring grant at present of Rs. 33,400. The Economics Department has been financed hitherto partly out of capital received from the Government of India as a non-recurring grant, and partly, during recent years, by the appropriation to it of money originally allocated for the encouragement and development of the study of Indian languages. It is desirable that the funds so used should now be made available for the purposes for which they were originally intended and this can be done only if by a Government grant the University is able to place its Economics Department on a permanent basis.

2. Studentship tenable in Europe. In G.O. No. 207, Law (Education), dated 21st February 1922, the Government intimated to the University the decision of the Government of India to provincialize all existing State Scholarships and stated that in view of the existing financial stringency, it was not proposed to institute any new scholarships during the year 1922-23. Accordingly though one of the University State Scholarships instituted by the Government of India in 1886 had fallen to the turn of this University to award in 1922 it was not awarded, and the notification published by the University in connection therewith prior to the receipt of the Government Order had to be cancelled. The State Scholarship was awarded by this University for the last time in 1919. In view of the importance of the encouragement of research work and advanced studies the Academic Council at its meeting held on 8th August 1924 resolved that the Syndicate be requested to address the Government with a view to the Government placing at the disposal of the University, at least every alternate year, if not every year, sufficient funds to enable it to award University Scholarships of the value of £.350/- per annum tenable in Europe for three years under conditions similar to those in force in connection with the old State Scholarships instituted by the Government of India.

to be kept

The recommendation of the Academic Council was accepted by the Syndicate at its meeting held on 6th September 1924. At its meeting held on 4th October 1924 it approved of the detailed estimate submitted herewith and decided that in the event of the funds being placed at the disposal of the University the Scholarship, which should be of the value of £.350 per annum, should be awarded annually and that the scholars should be provided with a second class passage to Europe and back. I am enclosing herewith a detailed estimate of cost from which it will be seen that, presuming the scholarship is awarded in 1925-26, the cost for the 1st year will be Rs. 6,180/- for the second year Rs. 11,430/- and for the third year Rs. 17,610/- and thereafter the annual allotment will be the same viz., Rs. 17,610/-, on the assumption that one scholarship is awarded annually. I am accordingly directed by the Syndicate to request that the Government will be pleased to provide a sum of Rs. 6,200 in the Budget Estimate for the year 1925-26. With its present resources all that the University had been able to do has been to continue a local research studentship to Dr. H. Parameswaran while working in England where he had a distinguished career, and to give a studentship of £.150 per annum to Mr. R. Vaithianathaswami, who is working in Scotland, a sum which is quite inadequate, and which is being supplemented by the Government. I may add that "the provision of four research studentships in Physical and Natural Sciences tenable in Europe" was mentioned in the memorandum referred to above as one of the purposes for which the grant included in last year's budget was destined.

3. Travelling allowances for Members of University Authorities and Committees. I have to request that a sum of Rs. 20,000 may be included in the Budget Estimate for 1925-26 as a grant to the University to enable it to pay the travelling expenses of members of the different University Authorities and Committees. It is perhaps unnecessary for me to add anything to what I have said in my letter No. 7502 dated 25th July 1924. The members of the Authorities and of Committees are finding it a hardship that every journey to Madras entails their having to incur expenditure which is not covered by the bare second class railway fare now paid to them.

4. Library Grant. Application has already been made for a special grant in the current year of Rs. 10,000/- and of an annual recurring grant of Rs. 10,000 commencing in 1924-25 for the purchase of books for the Library. I have to request that provision may be made in the budget for a grant of Rs. 10,000 for 1925-26.

5. Oriental Languages. A Committee was appointed by the Academic Council at its meeting on 8th August 1924 to consider the best methods to be adopted for the encouragement of the study of (1) Oriental Languages in general and (2) the South Indian Vernaculars in particular. That Committee has met and passed the resolutions of which I enclose a copy along with a copy of the letter of Mr. S. Kuppaswami Sastri, the Convener of the Committee. Mr. Kuppaswami Sastri has furnished me also with an estimate of the expenditure under the scheme. According to the estimate, of which a copy is enclosed, the maximum expenditure will be Rs. 90,000; the average annual cost will be Rs. 83,200 and the expenditure for the eleven months of the first year will be Rs. 69,300. The recommendations of the Committee will be placed before the Academic Council at its next meeting in December. It is impossible for me to send you at present an accurate estimate of the probable expenditure on the Committee's scheme as the Council may modify or reject its proposals. I would ask you, however, to include provisionally in the Budget Estimate for 1925-26 a sum of Rs. 69,300.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE FOR ORIENTAL STUDIES

I. That for promoting the study of languages other than English it be a recommendation from this Committee that provision be made for the compulsory study of one of the Indian classical or vernacular languages or a foreign language in the intermediate and B.A. degree examinations.

II.(a) That arrangements be made to establish a University Institute of Advanced Oriental Studies and Research, partly with a view to providing candidates for the examination for Certificates of Proficiency in Oriental Learning and partly for Oriental Research, to be offered by offering scholarships and bursaries to candidates for the degree of Master of Oriental Learning.

(b) That this Institute be established in direct and close connection with the Government Oriental Manuscript Library, Madras.

(c) That provision be made for attracting research fellowships for Oriental, Persian and Islamic studies, such fellowships being tenable for a minimum period of five years with option to renew, provided there shall always be one research fellow in each of the languages.

(d) That a Professorship in Sanskrit be instituted and held by a person in Tamil, Telugu, Malayalam, Kannada and Arabic (in addition to Sanskrit) be also instituted and that Professorships also in these latter languages be instituted as soon as practicable.

(e) That the Professors and teachers in Indian languages and the Institute be invited to co-operate in the work of the Institute.

Letter dated 16th October 1924, from M.R.Ry. S. Kuppuswami Sastri Avl., M.A., Convener of the Committee for Oriental Studies, appointed by the Academic Council at its meeting on 8th August 1924, under item 17, to the Manager-in-Charge of the Registrar's Office, University of Madras.

With reference to your communication No.8910 dated 26th August 1924, I have the honour to report that the Committee for Oriental Studies appointed by the Academic Council met in the Senate House on the 11th and 13th October 1924, and after discussing all the subjects referred to the Committee in the communication above referred to, adopted certain resolutions, which are set forth separately in Appendix B appended to the minutes herewith forwarded. It will be seen from the minutes that this Committee consisting of twenty four members representing different linguistic interests and various aspects of Oriental studies, adopted unanimously all the resolutions set forth in Appendix B, except IV(1), after a fairly full discussion; and I need hardly point out that this is a very strong point in favour of these resolutions. I request that you will be so good as to ~~forward~~ place this report and the minutes before the Vice-Chancellor for favour of inclusion in due course, in the agenda for the next meeting of the Academic Council.

On the margin^②, I am also giving a statement of the probable annual expenditure to be incurred, should all the resolutions in Appendix B be carried out.

The files received from your office with No.8910 dated 26th August 1924, and No.9842 dated 15th September 1924 are herewith returned.

officers, teachers and servants of the University, but no rules have yet been made for instituting a Provident Fund. A lump sum of Rs 5,000 has been provided on the assumption that the Professor

REGISTRAR.

C.2807-C. From the Vice-Chancellor, University of Madras, No.11107 dated 20-10.1924.

Subject:- Grants to the University of Madras in 1925-26.

The Syndicate of the Madras University submits proposals for the inclusion of a provision of Rs 1,38,900 in the Budget Estimate for 1925-26 for grants to the University under section 44(2)b of the Madras Uni-

	Rs
(1) Permanent retention of the Professor- ship of Economics. -----	33,400
(2) A studentship tenable in Europe. -----	6,200
(3) Travelling allowances for members of the University authorities and committees. ----- Additional grant over and above the usual grant of Rs 20,000. -----	20,000
(4) Grant to the University library. -----	10,000
(5) Development of the study of Oriental languages. -----	69,300
	1,38,900

Item (3) - Travelling allowances.

The question has already been discussed and it has been suggested by the Secretary that the Government need not sanction any grant to the University over and above the usual grant of Rs 20,000. For orders whether this item may, therefore,

Items (ii) and (iii). These amounts ^{under these heads} represent the contribution towards a Pension or Provident Fund ~~for~~ ^{for} the two readers, the clerks and peons. Allowing 1/16th of the pay as contribution for Provident Fund, a sum of only Rs 600 is ~~admissible~~ ^{admissible}. The amount of Rs 5,000 provided for the purpose is excessive. Similarly the amount provided for leave allowance is high. The University may be requested to state the basis on which the amounts have been calculated. A draft T.M. to the Registrar is submitted.

Meanwhile they ^{amounts} may be provisionally included in the estimate.

4. Item (2) - Studentship tenable in Europe.

In the estimate furnished by the University provision is made for a scholarship of £ 350 a year tenable in Europe. The usual rate is £ 300 + £ 45 for war bonus.

This rate may be adopted. Provision for a full year seems unnecessary. It would suffice if provision is made for eight months' charges, as the colleges will not open earlier than ~~July~~ ^{July}. The estimated cost will then be £ 230 for scholarship + £ 62 on account of passage money or £ 292. A provision of Rs 4,380 may be made on account of ^{the} scholarships tenable in Europe. In the tentative scheme which was framed last year provision was made for four Research studentship tenable in Europe. Apparently the University considers that one studentship will suffice

5. Item (5) - Oriental languages. The Syndicate states that it is impossible to send an accurate estimate of the cost. Further it is stated that the Academic Council may modify or reject the proposals of the committee appointed to consider the best methods of encouraging the study of Oriental languages. Professorship from the allocation of Rs 36,500 for the study of South Indian languages should be available for utilisation on the advancement of the study of Oriental languages. For these reasons it is submitted that the scheme may be postponed to 1926-27. The Academic Council will then have pronounced its opinion on the scheme and the Government will have a correct estimate of cost on which they can proceed.

6. The total provision required is as follows-

(1) Professorship of Economics. -----	Rs 31,210
(2) Grant to the University Library. -----	10,000
(3) Studentships tenable in Europe. -----	4,380
	45,590

A provision of Rs 45,590 may be made in the Budget Estimate for 1925-26 for grants to the University under section 44(2)(b) of the Madras University Act, 1923, in addition to Rs 30,000 for the Vice-Chancellor's pay.

7. Of the three items mentioned in paragraph 6 above, the second one, (grant to the University library) is being placed separately before the Finance Committee. The last is on approved lines. The first is only a continuance, on a permanent basis, of the existing arrangement. Though the University is required to furnish an estimate of expenditure, it is doubtful whether the proposal should be placed before the Finance Committee. Finance may be requested to offer its remarks.

PART II SCHEMES 1925-26.

Grants to the Madras University.

The grants recommended by the Law department are:

- (1) Recurring grants for Library Rs. 10,000 (fixed and recurring)
- (2) Scholarship in Europe. " 4,380 in 1925-26.
- (3) Permanent retention of Professorship of Economics. " 31,210 (fixed and recurring).

Item (1) need not be treated as Part II, as a supplementary grant is to be obtained from the Legislative Council for an initial grant of Rs. 10,000 and a recurring grant of Rs. 10,000 in the current year. If the recurring grant is voted by the Legislative Council, it becomes a standing sanction just as the Vice-Chancellor's pay. Provision will be entered in Part I if the grant is voted in the current year.

Items (2) and (3) should be treated as Part II.

2. Item (2). Scholarship.

The intention is to revive the state scholarship given by the Government of India from 1886 in rotation to the several Universities in India which was discontinued after the reforms. The scholarship was open only to 'statutory Natives of India' and not to the members of the domiciled European or Anglo-Indian community. It was of the annual value of £ 200 or £ 250 if the holder joined a College in Oxford or Cambridge and was tenable for three years. The last scholarship for Madras was given in 1919. The object of the scholarship was to enable the holder to perfect his education and to study for the various learned professions or for the Civil and other services of India.

not clear why two are necessary. Finance may agree to one on Rs. 15.

Leave allowances.

A sum of Rs. 2,000 is entered for leave allowances. A flat rate of 2½ per cent of the pay of the Professor, readers and clerks will suffice. Leave allowance for the assistant professor is not necessary as when he goes on leave his leave pay will be borne by Government as leave contributions are paid to Government by the University.

Travelling allowance, books, periodicals, furniture, stationery etc. Rs. 4,500.

The present expenditure is reported to be about Rs. 3,300. It is not clear why Rs. 4,500 is required next year. Finance may accept Rs. 4,500.

If the cost for 1925-26 is calculated as above, it is not likely that it will exceed Rs. 18,000 very much. and the excess may be given as a grant.

state scholarships i.e. that it should be granted for the purpose of encouraging Indian students to resort more freely to England for the purpose of perfecting their education and of studying for the various learned professions or for the civil and other services in India. Finance suggests that the proposed scholarship should be strictly for research work in Physical or Natural Science. There seems to be no reason why the scholarships should be burdened with more restrictions than before and why research work in Physical and Natural Science ^{above} ~~above~~ should be recognised. We may retain the conditions that existed before provincialization.

2. Item (3) - Economics Professorship - Paragraph 3 of the Finance Department's note on pages 7-9 ante.

With reference to the portion marked 'K' on page 7 ante, it is submitted that what this Department furnished was only an estimate of cost. After provision is made in the budget, the procedure prescribed in paragraphs 3 and 4 of G.O. No. 620, Law (Education), dated 16-4-24, will, no doubt, be observed in disbursing the grant to the University.

As regards the suggestion at 'L' on page 8 ante it is not within the competence of the local Government to dictate to the University the manner in which it should spend the annual grant of Rs 85,500 - Vide Advocate General's opinion on page 38 of G.O. No. 620, dated 16-4-24. It is of course open to the Government to take into account the funds available with the University in determining the amount of grant to be made to it. The expenditure of Rs 18,000 a year, now incurred on the Economics Professorship, is a diversion

The amount originally earmarked for the study of South Indian languages. The University states that this amount is required for the object for which it was intended. It is, therefore, the Economics Professorship and not the scheme for the study of South Indian languages which should be financed by an additional grant. The Finance Department states that this Department has urged the postponement of the scheme. This is based on a misapprehension. What this Department suggested was that the sum of Rs 18,000 now spent on the Economics Professorship should be spent for developing the study of South Indian languages when a separate grant is sanctioned for the former and that the new scheme for the study of Oriental languages for which the Vice-Chancellor asked for a provision of Rs 69,300 should be postponed to 1926-27, as the Academic Council had not pronounced its opinion on it.

The sum of Rs 18,000 should not, therefore, be deducted from the estimated cost of the Professorship of Economics.

The details of the provision for the Professorship are dealt with below:-

(1) Professorship. The Finance Department accepts the provision of Rs 4,800 suggested by this Department. The University has provided for Provident Fund contribution in respect of this appointment. This may be omitted.

(2) Assistant Professor. The Finance Department would agree to a pay of only Rs 500 for the Asst. Professor, based on the pay of the present incumbent of the post. The University states that a full time Asst. Professor will hereafter be paid at Rs 600 a month. The present Asst. Professor is likely to continue in the appointment in his ex-appointment on his existing pay, Rs 500. The Finance Department's suggestion may be accepted for the present. The pensionary and leave contribution may be fixed at twenty five per cent of the pay as suggested by the Finance Department.

(3) The two Readers.

The Finance Department accepts the pay of Rs 100-20-200 proposed, but suggests that the provision may be based on the pay of the existing incumbents. It has since been ascertained that one of the readers has reached the maximum of the scale of pay and that the other is drawing Rs 180 and would draw Rs 200 on 7-10-25. The University has provided for a Provident Fund contribution of fifteen per cent of the pay of the Readers - please see the telephonic message from the Registrar on page 15 of c.f. The Finance Department suggests that the contribution may be fixed at one-sixteenth of the pay. The suggestion may be accepted.

(4) The two clerks.

The Finance Department agrees only to the lowest scale of pay sanctioned for clerks in the University office, being adopted in the case of the clerks proposed to be entertained in the Economics Department. The organisation of this Department on a permanent basis under the changed conditions consequent on the reconstitution of the University authorities will throw a responsible work on the clerical establishment. Clerks on the lowest scale of pay may not be equal to the task. It has been ascertained that the pay of the two clerks at present employed is Rs 70-7½-175 and Rs 45, respectively, and that the lowest pay of clerks in the University Office is Rs 50-4-90. The Secretary has agreed

suggested two clerks on Rs 85 each. For orders whether the minimum pay of Rs 50-4-90 will be considered sufficient.

As in the case of the Readers, contribution to the Provident Fund may be fixed at one-sixteenth of the pay instead of at fifteen per cent as suggested by the University.

(5) Peons. The Vice-Chancellor states that an additional peon is necessary on account of the increasing work in the library. The Finance Department would allow only one peon. Submitted that two peons may be allowed as requested by the Vice-Chancellor.

(6) Leave Allowance.

The Vice-Chancellor has made provision for leave allowance at the rate of one-eleventh of the pay of the appointments. As the University is a vacation department, the rate of 2½ per cent proposed by the Finance Department may be accepted. Any excess may be met by the University.

(7) Travelling allowance, books, periodicals etc.

The Finance Department accepts the provision of Rs 4,500 proposed by this Department.

3. The estimate of cost of the Economics Department on which the grant for 1925-26 may be based will, with reference to the foregoing alterations, stand as follows:

(1) Part time Professor - Rs 400 a month.	Rs 4,800	✓
(2) Asst. Prof. on Rs 500 a month	6,000	✓
(3) Leave & Pensionary contribution to No. (2)	1,500	✓

A sum of Rs. 67,300 has been voted by the Legislative Council for grants to the University under section 44 (2) (b) of the Act. The details for the provision are as follow:-

(i) Vice Chancellor's salary	Rs. 30,000
(ii) Professorship of Economics	23,500
(iii) Recurring grant to the University Library.	10,000
(iv) Grant to University payable under G.O. No. 593 Finance, 15-8-1924 for printing its notices in the Govt. Press	3,750
	67,250

Under paragraph 4 of G.O. No. 620 Law (Education), dated 16-4-1924, the amount voted by the Council should be intimated to the University with a statement of the objects on which it should be utilised. The grant towards recurring expenditure will be disbursed in quarterly instalments in the beginning of each quarter in advance on application. The provision of Rs. 67,300 is for recurring expenditure. The grants under items (i) to (iii) should be disbursed in quarterly instalments. It does not seem necessary to disburse the grant under item (iv) in quarterly instalments, as it does not come strictly within the purview of section 44 (2) (b) of the Act and paragraph 4 of G.O. No. 620 Law (Education), dated 16-4-1924 does not therefore apply to it. The whole grant may therefore be paid immediately to the University on application. ~~As paragraph has been added to the last order in the linked file.~~

This section refers to grants towards salaries of teachers, librarians, museum etc.

Q. Though there is provision for Rs 30,000 the actual grant will be limited to Rs 15,323. the amount needed

2. In the linked file the application from the University for a grant of Rs. 25,323 towards the pay of the Vice-Chancellor for the year 1925-26 is dealt with. Last year the Finance Department agreed to the amount of the full year's salary being placed at the disposal of the University, as that was the only grant in question. In the current year the prescribed procedure of paying the amount due to the University quarterly instalments will presumably have to be followed in respect of the ^{grant towards the} Vice-Chancellor's salary as well as in the case of grants for other objects. The amount due to the University for the Vice-Chancellor's salary for the first quarter in the current year is Rs. 7,323. This amount ~~as well as the sum of Rs. 3,750 under item (iv) above~~ may be placed at the disposal of the University. A draft order is submitted in the linked file. In regard to grants for other objects, the University may be asked to send an application.
