the honour to inform you, that 4 out of the 5 schools remained to be opened under this Taluk Board out of the subsidy sanctioned in G.O. No. 1598 Law (Education) dated 16th October 1924, have been opened in villages noted in the margin, from the beginning of August 1925 and this fact has been —

9
Communicated to the Deputy Inspector of Schools, Udipi Range.

The remaining one school will be opened in Albadi village where there is a population of 1284. It is reported by the Village headman that there is no school in the village, the one aided school having been closed about 8 or 9 months' back.

For G. O. No. 1678 Laws (Education) dated the 28th September 1925, subsidy has been sanctioned for 1925-26 in respect of the 12 schools opened in 1924.

I therefore request that you will be so good as to move Government to sanction subsidy in respect of the 12 schools already opened, from August 1925
and in respect of the remaining one school, from November 1925.
