Q. 2278. With reference to question

No. 1241, answered at the meeting dated 8th February 1926, will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state:

(a) why thirty-six Brahman girls are allowed half fee concession in the Government Training School for mistresses, Coimbatore;

(b) when this concession was allowed;

(c) whether the rule 92 of the Madras Educational Rules is applied for granting half fee concession for Brahmans and other forward classes also;

(d) whether the Government have classified Brahman community as a backward community;

(e) if not, why this concession was allowed; and

(f) why full fee concession is allowed to a Non-Brahman touchable community girl whereas a depressed class girl of poor state reading in the fifth standard by name Nagamalle is not given the same concession though she applied to the superintendent of the school several times for it?

Scholarship for girls in Government Training School for Mistresses, Coimbatore.

* 1876 Q.—Mr. R. VEERIAN: With reference to question No. 1241 answered at the meeting, dated 8th February 1926, will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) why thirty-six Brahman girls are allowed half-fee concession in the Government Training School for Mistresses, Coimbatore;

(b) when this concession was allowed; and

(c) whether the rule 92 of the Madras Educational Rules is applied in granting half-fee concession for Brahmans and other forward classes also?

A.—(a), (b) & (c) Under rule 92 of the Madras Educational Rules, poor girls of all classes and communities are eligible for half-fee concessions.

Mr. R. VEERIAN:—"Sir, the answer given is altogether puzzling. I find from the rules that this half-fee concession is allowed only to girls of Oriya, Muhammadan and the backward and depressed classes. I want to know why this is not extended to all girls."

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—"That rule is by no means exhaustive."

Mr. R. VEERIAN:—"May I know whether they have issued any such rule since the last publication of the Madras Educational Rules?"

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—"The list is not exhaustive and as such discretion is given to the heads of institutions."

The final form of the question and answer was as above. The notes may
